BLOWN AWAY, the offices of Apex Oil and Bulk Services of the Tri-City Regional Port District sustained extensive damage in Sunday night's tornado. The building formerly housing the Tri-City Regional Port Authority was blown across the street and smashed. The port building nearby was not damaged. There were no injuries at the port.

GC tornado touched many

As the damage toll continues to mount from Sunday night's tornado, some are counting their losses, while others are counting their blessings.

There were no fatalities, although 17 persons were injured in the tornado. Nameoki School reopened yesterday after being closed for two days by tornado damage. Damage at Tri-Mor Bowl alone is estimated at $2 million. Smith Corp. may have sustained another $1 million damage to its automotive frame plant on Missouri Avenue. There is extensive damage to the rear of Central Hardware, although estimates of the cost to repair it are unavailable. Fox Photo's booth is just gone, as are the office of Bulk Services and Apex Oil Co. at the Tri-City Regional Port.

Residential damage also could mount into the millions. Homes, roofs, garages and sheds were destroyed along the path of the twister.

Many will have vivid memories for years to come of "the night the lights went out." Most are grateful to be alive after witnessing the destructive force of a tornado.

Following are some of the memories and reactions of Quad-City area residents who had close calls with death Sunday night.

LOUISE COLLINS, Pontoon Beach
Mrs. Collins was bowling with her husband at Tri-Mor Bowl when the tornado plunged the facility into darkness and lifted part of the roof. She gives the following account.

"There were three leagues bowling. About 200 people or so inside when the lights went out. Everybody yelled, 'Hit the deck,' so we hit the deck."

"It sounded like an (train) engine coming through... roaring through there. Water was pouring down from the roof over the lanes. Somebody yelled, grab your bowling balls and go home."

"It was pitch dark. A lot of people yelled, 'Where's the emergency lights,' but it stayed pitch black. There was no panic. People were very calm. That surprised me. When we got outside, I was told I walked right through a pile of glass and don't remember. Some cars had the glass broken, but ours did not. Everything was just a shamble."

"There were all kinds of things in the way to get out of the parking lot and home to Pontoon Beach. We had to dodge tree limbs and stuff in the road."

"I think we were very lucky. Nobody got hurt."

BRIAN CAVANAUGH, 3060 Nameoki Drive

Brian Cavanaugh wasn't bothered by the fact that his mobile home was destroyed by the tornado which hit Granite City Sunday. He was just glad to be alive.

Cavanaugh was standing in the living room of the mobile home watching the cloud come in, not knowing the cloud was a funnel cloud at first. By the time he knew what it was, it was too late. The unit was on its side, leaning against a tree.

Although the mobile home was destroyed, his staying in the living room probably saved his life. Cavanaugh was able to climb out of the home onto the neighboring field to the north.

"I'm just lucky to be alive now," Cavanaugh said. "I'm not really concerned that the trailer was destroyed; it's just a loss I had to take. However, if you lose your life, you lose everything." The mobile home and its contents were destroyed, but Cavanaugh did not remain homeless long. Cavanaugh was living in the unit temporarily until his nearby home was remodeled.

He also was pleased with the help he received to clean up the site. "I had about 30 friends and neighbors come out on their own to help me out. I really want to thank all of them because they really helped me out."

Meanwhile, Cavanaugh has not been able to pick up all the pieces from the mobile home. Although the bulk of the unit was moved, portions of it are still in the field. Cavanaugh said he tried to walk in the field to recover some of the debris, but the field was so muddy that he sank far into the mud.

"It just doesn't bother me that I lost everything, because I can replace those things. I'm happy to be alive now," he said.

ALL THAT'S LEFT. Brian Cavanaugh of 3060 Nameoki Drive, was indeed lucky. Although Sunday's tornado struck his mobile home and turned it on its side into a tree, Cavanaugh was not injured. Debris from the home landed as far as a quarter of a mile away from the site of the mobile home's lot.

Waive GC building permit fee

As was done after the tornado here two years ago, Granite City has again agreed to waive its building permit fee for rebuilding and repairing homes damaged in Sunday's tornado.

According to Mike DeKuntz of the city's engineering department, plumbing and electrical permits still will have to be purchased, since extensive inspections are required, but basic building permits will be free for those rebuilding from the tornado.

Any major work on homes or businesses in the city, including roof repairs, still requires a building permit, which may be obtained in the engineering department on the south side of the Granite City Township Hall, 21st Street and Delmar Avenue.

Brimberry wants to plead?

Thomas Brimberry says he wants to plead guilty to five of the 15 federal charges against him, rather than go to trial, the St. Louis Post-Dispatch says.

In a copyrighted story, the Post-Dispatch says it received a telephone call yesterday from Brimberry, who said in a "terse" interview that he wants to plead guilty to five charges, but does not know which ones.

Brimberry, a former Granite Cityan, faces 12 federal charges in Missouri and three in Illinois in connection with his role in the alleged mastermind of the stock swindle which liquidated the Stix & Co. brokerage, in which he was the senior vice president.

The Post-Dispatch said Brimberry referred all questions to his attorneys. The newspaper quotes attorneys Lawrence J. Fleming of St. Louis and Rodney DeVilliers Sr. of Oklahoma City as saying that there is no firm agreement with federal prosecutors and that Brimberry should not be talking about the negotiations, since publicity could halt any discussions.

DeVilliers said that Brimberry has been calling almost anyone who will accept his collect calls around the country, the Post-Dispatch said.

The newspaper says "Brimberry sounded matter-of-fact about plans to plead guilty" during yesterday's telephone interview.

Seek funds for sewer breaks

Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler will conduct a special council meeting tonight to say he feels he has found a source to fund some sewer breaks repairs and found possible alternate sources to fund other breaks.

The money, however, is apparently dependent on the city supplying additional information to the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). The agency must then evaluate the information.

"We have to get back with them on this first with more information," the mayor said. "That's what I have to talk with the council about."

The mayor made his brief comments Wednesday afternoon, shortly after returning from a trip to Washington, D.C., where he met with FEMA representatives.

Earlier this year, FEMA decided not to include Madison County among other counties that will receive funds to pay for damages caused by last December's floods.

City officials contend that at least part of the more than a dozen sewer breaks here are being caused by rising groundwater from last winter's floods.

Schuler reported Wednesday that another sewer break occurred at 3500 block of Terrace Lane, Fourth Ward Alderman Sharon Perjak, street and alley committee chairman, told the council Tuesday night that another sewer line has broken near the Granite Sheet Metal offices in the 2500 block of Missouri Avenue.

Due to the latest sewer breaks, the mayor said he cannot give an estimate how much repairs could cost, but past estimates have varied from $400,000 to almost $1 million.

Awards to the Press-Record

The Granite City Press-Record received several top awards in the Southern Illinois Editorial Association's (SIEA) Better Newspaper Contest and former Press-Record Editor William F. "Bill" Winter, a 38-year member of the Press-Record's news and editing staff, was honored as a "master editor" by the Southern Illinois University School of Journalism. Reporter Georgeann McGee was honored with the top award for community service reporting among Southern Illinois newspapers of all sizes, daily and weekly, and Reporter-Photographer Roger Kramer took the top honors among all Southern Illinois newspapers for the best feature story. Press-Record Editor Gary Schneider received an honorable mention certificate in the best editorial category. The awards were presented at a luncheon at Southern Illinois University-Carbondale.

Dr. Vernon A. Stone, SIUC School of Journalism director, presented Winter the coveted "Golden Em" for "distinguished service in the field of American journalism."

The award also cited "specific contributions to the profession, set out at the time of presenting this award." The presentation took place during a weekend luncheon at SIUC in Carbondale.

Winter was elected a member of the SIUC Journalism Hall of Fame and was authorized to "hereafter honorably wear the badge of a master editor."

The badge consists of a golden "EM." An em is a printing term for a unit of measure. It is used frequently in crossword puzzles, along with en, which is half the width of an em.

Previous recipients of master editor recognition have included C.E. "Corky" Townsend, longtime editor and publisher of the Press-Record before retiring, and Karl Monroe, senior editor of the Collinsville Herald.

Winter's name will be added to a Hall of Fame plaque at Carbondale.

The ceremony took place as part of the 1983 Better Newspaper Contest awards program of the Southern Illinois Editorial Association.

Dr. Stone told the gathering that Winter began his career "in 1945 with assignments in sports and general news, and continued with the promotion to assistant editor in 1956, associate editor in 1961 and editor in 1970."

"Although he has reduced his hours and responsibilities since 1980 for health reasons, he continues to handle a

Don't forget Mother's Day

By NANCY WEIL
of the Press-Record

Sunday is Mother's Day, a holiday achieved, ironically, through the efforts of various women. It would be much more romantic had their children thought of the day, but it seems typical that their mothers initiated the idea.

While Julia Ward Howe, author of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," is the first person known to suggest the holiday, Anna Jarvis was the woman who devoted a lifetime to push for a nationwide day of observance.

She selected the second Sunday of May for the holiday and she originated the custom of wearing a carnation on that day. Her campaign started in 1907, but it was not until May 8, 1914, that Congress passed a resolution

Pontoon Beach Lions named 'Club-of-the-Year'

The Lions Club of Pontoon Beach has been awarded the 1983 Club of the Year Award for District I-G. The annual award was presented to President Frank Cramer of the Pontoon Beach Club by Governor Donald Patrick during the I-G convention banquet. The Pontoon Beach Club was chosen over the 50 other clubs which make up district I-G.

The local club has been active in many programs this year. It has provided a drug awareness program and a diabetes program for Pontoon Beach. During the year, it sponsored the new Lions Club of Venice and their own Leos Club which provides an opportunity for teens to participate in Lionism.

RECOVER AUTO

Illinois State Police reported last week they recovered a 1972 auto belonging to Mrs. Margaret Brim, 1939 (rear) Cleveland Blvd., which was reported stolen April 21 in Granite City. The vehicle was found near Hecker, Ill.

It has had a successful year in the eye donor registration program. The program Give-A-Can at Christmas provided over 100 baskets. The Journey for Sight Bike-A-Thon is a recent accomplishment for the Lions Club. Its Greeters Committee has been active in the community welcoming new businesses. The Lions of Pontoon Beach have made many special contributions that have benefited the community.

After the presentation of the Club of the Year Award, Lion President Cramer stated that "he was very proud of his fellow Pontoon Beach Lions." Many people have congratulated him on a very successful year, but that success could not have been achieved without the unselfish efforts of all the Lions in his Club, he said.

The Pontoon Beach Lions are not sitting still, but are presently preparing for another successful year.

Chosen for subway car undercarriages

GSI Engineering, the St. Louis-based design division of Lukens General Industries, has been selected to provide design and specialized technical services for production of undercarriages for 825 subway cars destined for the City of New York subway system.

Granite Cityman Keith L. Jackson, president of GSI Engineering, said Wednesday that GSI's American licensee, Buckeye Steel Castings Co., a division of Worthington Industries, Inc., will produce castings for the 1,650 undercarriages at facilities in Columbus, Ohio.

A Canadian-based company, Bombardier Inc., of Montreal, was awarded the $669 million subway car contract, which was announced as one of the largest rail car contracts ever to be placed.

Buckeye Steel Castings' portion of the contract is believed to be in excess of $46 million.

Production of the rail car undercarriages is scheduled to begin late this year and extend into 1987.

The Buckeye GSI combination has provided rail car undercarriages for many rapid transit systems, including Philadelphia, Boston and New York.

Lukens General Industries is a subsidiary of Lukens Inc., a diversified enterprise providing plate steels, machinery, equipment, supplies and services to a broad range of industrial, energy, transportation and government markets. It includes the former General Steel Industries.

CALL RESULTS IN WARRANT ARREST

Venice police arrested Rodney Jenkins, 26, of 52 Lee Wright Homes, Venice, last week on warrants alleging failure to appear on charges of unlawful use of a weapon and driving while under the influence (DWI) of intoxicating liquor. Police found outstanding warrants against Jenkins when they went to investigate a call at Lee Park and Brown Street.

He also was charged with unlawful possession of cannabis when police allegedly found two small envelopes containing what appeared to be cannabis and a package of rolling papers in his pockets.

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

The cost-conscious Granite City School Board rehired 27 teachers Tuesday night but honorably dismissed 48 non-certificated employees.

Those on the new layoff list are 21 school custodians, 17 secretaries, nine cafeteria workers and an executive secretary, Norma Roney.

On March 22, the board honorably dismissed 192 teachers for 1983-84; this week's rehiring reduces the total to 165. The latter figure and the 48 non-certificated employee layoffs total 215.

The board Tuesday night accepted the resignation of Principal Edward J. Gonia, who plans to become a school administrator in the Chicago suburban area.

Gonia had been transferred effective this summer from Lake School, which is to be closed, to Maryville School.

The Maryville principal job will be posted for applications.

Names of the custodians, secretaries and cafeteria employees were not included in the honorable dismissal motion.

Re-employment of teachers who had been scheduled for June honorable dismissals was decided upon after the board and administrative staff reviewed the requested classes listed by students who will attend the combined Granite City High School this fall. The district will operate 12 buildings instead of the present 18 schools.

Rehired for the fall 1983 semester were Don Miller, a high school driver education teacher (at South this year), and three health education instructors, Greg Patton and Leonard Lybarger, both of South, and Bryan Wilkinson of the North physical education staff.

The following 20 were rehired as high school teachers for the entire 1983-84 school year:

English teachers Donna High of Coalinga, Junior C. W. Hughes of South, Dale Ashmore of the North social science faculty, Mary Deane of South, and Thomas of Grigsby Junior High and Gene Baker of South. Baker is the repeated state champion high school soccer coach and was named national coach of the year in 1983.

Industrial and vocational education teachers David King of South, Larry Talbert of North, Alvin Turner and Gary Morgan, both of South, and Gus Lignoul of North.

Home economics teachers Mildred Collins of North, Barbara Coleman and Catherine Riebold, both of South, and Sharon Veach of North.

Business education teachers Linda Haddox and Betty Dumont, both of North. Speech teacher Dr. Goni Michaeloff of North. Librarian Robert McBride of Grigsby.

And high school physical education teacher Ron Yates, now a Coolidge industrial arts teacher.

Also rehired for the 1983-84 year were Karen Cooper, who will move from Prather Junior High librarian to Grigsby librarian; Gloria Skubish, who will continue as Grigsby reading laboratory teacher; and Dorothy Bailey, who will move from Johnson School physical education teacher to Frohardt middle primary instructor.

News notes

The Granite City School Board will decide by June 7 whether to sell part of the Nameoki Grade School campus to the adjacent Nameoki Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Don Pierson, pastor, and members of the congregation told the board it is planned to construct an addition at the rear of the church.

A 100x250-foot area is sought to assure Sunday parking space. The board is uncertain whether it will "mothball" Nameoki School for future school use or sell the building.

Madison, St. Clair, Macoupin, Jersey and Macon counties were designated Tuesday by the governor as disaster areas due to tornado, drain and flood damage.

The Illinois Board of Higher Education has approved splitting the SIUE school of science and engineering into separate schools.

Work on the replacement lock and dam was suspended again Wednesday as the Mississippi River rose to within 15 inches of the top of the cofferdam. Water is covering access roads. The river crested at St. Louis yesterday at 39.2 feet, topped only by 43.2 feet in 1973, 41.4 in 1944 and 40.3 in 1951.

Ten-year accreditation, the maximum that can be given, was approved this week for Belleville Area College. A team from the North Central Association was here Monday through Wednesday, visiting the main BAC campus and the Storm damage can lead to reduced assessments

Granite City Township Tax Assessor Von Dee Cruse is reminding those whose homes and businesses sustained damage in Sunday night's tornadoes that they may qualify for reduced taxes if the storm reduced the value of their structures.

He said forms are on the way from the state to his office in the basement of the Granite City Hall, Edison and Niedringhaus avenues, for storm victims to apply for reduced 1983 assessments.

"I don't think this will require Board of Review action. I believe we can handle it all here, in this office," Cruse said.

Persons who need additional information before applying for storm-related property assessment reductions may call Cruse's office at 877-6130.

Persons who need additional information before applying for storm-related property assessment reductions may call Cruse's office at 877-6130.

"In the long range, one of the most permanent things we can do for the area is economic development," Donovan said.

Alan Richardson, former director, resigned his position April 29.

"Who, me drunk? Sure, I had a few beers, but I'm not drunk."

So said the driver as she was being arrested for driving under the influence (DUI). But at her weight of 120 pounds, and having consumed five beers (60 ounces) in two hours, she had a blood alcohol concentration of .010. According to state law, she was intoxicated. Whether she realized it or not, her judgement was impaired, her driving ability was reduced, her reaction time was slowed. In short, she was a drunk driver. Unfortunately, for everyone like her, 1,999 other drunk drivers were not caught.

Commends tornado aid given in GC

Immediate aid came from many sources in the wake of Sunday night's devastating tornado which struck the Nameoki and North Granite areas in Granite City.

At the Venice City Council meeting Tuesday night, Fourth Ward Alderman Victor Valentine Sr. commended the Venice police officers and firemen who responded to the emergency and augmented the hard-pressed Granite City forces.

"I'd like to commend our concerned police officers and fire department members for the help they gave our Granite City neighbors during the tornado," the alderman stated.

Venice Police Chief Farris Smith, who was among those assisting here, said he and eight other officers came in to Granite City to aid in directing traffic and other assigned duties.

The Venice Police Department's total strength is 11 men, including Chief Smith.

Fine work by CD, other staffs

Guest comment by Assistant Fire Chief George Smolich—The Granite City fire department is expressing its appreciation and gratitude to all who assisted in various ways after Sunday night's tornado.

A great deal of credit goes to the members of the Granite City civil defense for their prompt response in providing emergency generators and lighting. The men of the Granite City street department did an incredible job clearing the streets of debris, manning pumps and rendering assistance where needed. Without their services, the task would have been insurmountable.

Crews from Illinois Power Company seemed to be everywhere, attempting to restore electric power and doing so in quick fashion.

Crews from Illinois Bell, various police agencies, disaster coordinators, medical crews, firefighters, St. Elizabeth Medical Center and private citizens assisted wherever and whenever needed.

There were other agencies and individuals, too numerous to mention, active during the evening and night. All deserve recognition for their timely, unselfish efforts.

K-9 corps expansion by state

The Illinois State Police K-9 Unit has only been in existence since 1982 but already it has had a big impact. The state is wise in planning to increase the number of teams from four to six in the near future. This will reduce response time and enable more service calls to be handled.

Supt. R.J. Miller describes the units as "an invaluable investigative tool for law enforcement." Calls last year totaled 270.

Each team consists of a trooper-handler and a German Shepherd. They are utilized statewide, not only by the state police but also by municipal police, criminal justice authorities, local organizations and the Illinois Department of Corrections.

Each canine's ability and training cover a broad spectrum of police activity. Tracking and crowd control are among the capabilities, along with weapon, evidence, drug, building and vehicle searches.

How good is the K-9 corps? The work of the dogs and their handlers has resulted in major drug finds and subsequent arrests.

One team is credited with the successful prosecution of an armed robbery suspect. The entire case centered around the dog's skills. The suspect was convicted and sentenced to 35 years in prison.

Requests for K-9 teams by law enforcement agencies or other groups are directed to State Police District 11, Collinsville, or the Illinois Department of Law Enforcement, Division of State Police, Field Operations Command Unit, 401 Army Building, Springfield 62706.

Illinois funds about to run out

State Comptroller Roland W. Burris, who takes a detailed look at Illinois governmental funds each month, says the state is "limping toward cash flow difficulties in June."

After the first nine months of the current fiscal year, July 1982 through March 1983, revenues were $115 million less than spending, and $22.7 million borrowed by the governor for various funds had not yet been repaid.

The average daily balance in state general funds was $10 million, deep into the "warning zone" and $52 million less than a year ago at the same time.

The available balance in all accounts at the end of March was $968 million, which was $264 million or 21.4 percent lower than at the end of March 1982.

Adding to those statistics are slower payment of the state's bills and substantial debt deferred from the last fiscal year.

Although the administration has not spelled out a specific course of action other than revenue enhancement (higher taxes), Burris notes, attempts are being made to borrow heavily from state pension funds to lessen or avert short-term borrowing at high interest rates on the open market.

Burris can be criticized for regularly prodding Governor James R. Thompson several years ago to spend rather than squander various accounts. Fortunately, the governor did keep a few dollars set aside prior to the recession, partly easing the current cash crisis.

Both the comptroller and governor are right in their current assertions that the state government is painfully short of revenue this spring and summer.

The political skills of both may be put to a severe test as legislators reluctantly discuss enacting the ingredients of a partial solution. A decision should be made by June 30, since delay would cause further chaos in the local-federal agencies that depend on state revenue.

Says federal employees deserve their wages

To the Editor:

Responding to your April 28 column in the Forum on "Generous Pensions For Federal Employees," I would like to compliment you on your gullibility. You have taken a complete set of lies and half truths written by a renowned enemy of not only the federal employees, but the federal government — and given him press coverage he could not buy.

This hatred for the federal workforce by Mr. Lesher is known throughout journalistic circles and only the slow-witted print his trash. Did you bother to check any of his statements? Do you accept them as truth? The need of Lesher and his ilk are well displayed in the recent announcement that the schools in this country have deteriorated to the point that "if the communists had planned to ruin our school system, they could not have done a more thorough job at that which has been done." Now that the Chamber of Commerce has destroyed education in this country, they are starting on the federal worker. Want to know why?

The present caliber of federal worker is high. Their pay is not near as high as Lesher states, but only 18 percent under private industry. Federal workers are free of scandal. They can't be bribed by COC greedies. They have no Teapot Domes, Bobbys Bakers or Watergates. They are our neighbors working hard just like you.

Why are they so honest? Why don't they succumb to bribery like civil workers in other countries? Because they are paid for their work, they have a retirement plan and they have a vested interest in this country.

In recent years, we have noticed the departure of COC and large corporations from the hearth and the home of our country. They have strayed to foreign countries and are more loyal to their corporate profits than they are to the United States. The faster they bring the federal worker into disrepute the faster the greed mongers can peddle their wares of deceit, bribery and profit undisturbed.

As a final reminder, did you know that the man who threw his body between President Reagan and the assassin's bullet was a federal worker. The federal worker does not ask the press in this country for any favors, except to tell the truth.

Objects to discontinuation of cable guide

To the Editor,

I am writing this letter to the newspaper to air my grievance against South-Western Cable TV Company.

In my March billing, I not only received a $1 price increase, but the announcement that the "Cable Today" guide would no longer be given to their subscribers.

I realize the bill increase is a controversy, so, as the mayor stated in previous newspaper article, I intend to deduct $2 from April's bill. However, that leaves the other matter of doing without a cable guide.

South-Western Cable offered to their subscribers, as an alternative, buying TV Guide or Wavelength.

TV Guide costs over $20 a year.

store to only buy Monday's paper.

It is easy to overlook a special move amid all the other mish-mash of television programs in either of the other guides.

The "Cable Today" shows all the month's movies at a glance, as opposed to only a week's worth from the other guides.

This is my biggest complaint. My bill is $24. This is the total amount of money my family spends on entertainment for the month, so we plan our weekends carefully around the cable guide, letting friends know weeks in advance, which movies are coming. This makes us feel we are getting our money's worth.

I realize to some this is a trivial matter, but if any other cable subscriber is upset with South-Western Cable increasing their bill while taking away a feature that should easily be covered by the increase, write to general manager at Box 329, Collinsville, IL 62234. A phone call to 345-8121 will also help, but must be followed.

Mini-park needs more care

To the Editor:

A few years ago, the Granite City Rotary Club spent money to help beautify the median between Madison Avenue and Nankook Road, across from Granite City High School South. Beautiful tulips are blooming now. It seems to me Granite City needs all the beautification it can get. The other day, I drove by this little park area and was shocked to see it all overgrown with dandelions and other weeds, almost as tall as the tulips and the bushes. It seems to me someone ed by a written complaint. These letters will then be forwarded to the main office.

working for the city could certainly clean this spot up with only a few hours of spraying before it ever got to this sorry shape.

This is a very busy spot where almost everyone passes and I believe something should be done, even if it is only to show the Rotarians a little appreciation.

Eyewitness account of tornado

(Editor's Note: The following story was written by a Press-Record Reporter who was an eyewitness to a portion of the storm. It was written Monday morning, hours after the storm subsided.)

By Valerie Evenden
of the Press-Record

Collecting one's thoughts about last night, three things linger uppermost in the mind.

Darkness...and the swiftness of events.

Going into the basement shortly after the first warning siren sounded at 8:02 p.m. Sunday, the reporter took along a flashlight, candles, matches and her West Highland pup, MacTuff.

The television was turned off, the radio volume increased and a cup of brewing tea grabbed on a fast return trip upstairs. The back door was closed and a bedroom window was opened after the first warning was heard.

The mattress from a twin bed was propped against the base of a brick chimney, a Coleman cooler was dragged alongside to serve as a table for the tea, candles and other trivia and MacTuff and I sat down to wait.

The lights were on and the radio announcer was warning of incoming messages. I asked myself, "Are we (Granite City) in northwest Madison County?" after hearing this location repeated in several reports of a storm on an anticipated path. I decided no, that area was more toward Alton.

To pass the time and keep busy, some Christmas decorations, left untouched for months, were sorted out.

Then the second signal sounded and I knew this was it. They don't activate the siren network a second time, I knew, unless something is seen fairly close and heading our way.

I was still reasonably calm, telling myself I was in the basement of a solid brick house and the chances of it hitting me were astronomical.

I had spent part of Friday night, wringing wet, in a concrete block shelter in the Ozarks during tornado warnings and a furious storm there. Nothing had happened then, I reasoned, while almost simultaneously recalling that a tornado had struck nearby Springfield, Mo.

Reassuring thoughts continued to surface. It was quiet outside...I couldn't hear any rain and a little thunder. I was wishing the radio wasn't quite so loud, feeling something important was going on outdoors.

Then I heard it...not the sound of a proverbial freight train, as people frequently describe a tornado, but the thundering roar one hears inside a metal shed during a rainstorm, blotting out everything.

With a loud whooshing noise, the back door burst open at the head of the stairs and in a blink of an eye, something large and white flash by, followed by a series of unidentifiable objects.

Some type of materials were being plastered against the screen.

The lights went out as I pulled the mattress over my head, with MacTuff right alongside, and felt for the flashlight. I was unable to switch the thing on as my hands were trembling and my heart was beating fast...too fast.

At that point, I believed the roof was collapsing. At least it sounded like it. Huge amounts of plaster and bricks were raining down from the ceilings.

Later, I learned the loud smacking noises came from tree branches, strips of metal, shingles and other debris being swept across the roof.

Rain started coming through the open door and down the basement steps, but the overwhelming noise had lessened. I climbed up the stairs, peeked quickly outside and shut the door with some difficulty.

Although the worst was over, I returned to the basement and again covered up with the mattress. It became very quiet and still and I remembered that these things sometimes twist back around.

A light went on in a neighbor's basement, shining into my above-ground window, and suddenly a very warm feeling went through me, someone else was around and I flashed my light toward the window.

Soon afterward, my courage somewhat fortified by relief, I opened the back door and looked out into total blackness.

Something large and white was standing up against a tree, not far from the door...it was a roof. Above it, perched in the tree, was a shiny screen door and the yard was littered with black pieces of tarpaper and shingles.

The high-pitched wail of sirens could be heard in the distance. Those needing help soon were going to get it.

A neighbor called out, "Are you alright?" and I answered, "Yes. Everything is OK."

We had survived a close encounter with nature's furious reminder that man is no match for its mighty forces.

Says YMCA program aided her arthritis pain

To the Editor:

I would like to advise arthritis victims of a class at the YMCA designed for those of us who need such a program.

I have had arthritis for many years, resulting in knee surgery six months ago. I learned of the "water exercise class" for arthritics and enrolled one month ago. I have benefited and want others who suffer to know of the relief from pain.

As we know, there is no cure for arthritis, but reduction in severity is definitely a plus.

MEMORIAL LECTURE AT SIUE MONDAY

A harmonizing of music and science will characterize a special presentation of the 1983 W. J. Probst Memorial Lecture.

Monday, May 9 at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, Michael Kasha, Rober G. Ostrer, a professor of chemistry at Florida State University, will discuss "A New Look at the History and Design of Stringed Instruments: Guitar, Viola, Violin," in conjunction with a recital by Kurt Stadler.

Sponsored by the department of chemistry at SIUE, the Probst lecture will be given at 3:30 p.m. in Science Building Room 3114 as part of the University's 25th Anniversary celebration.

A scholar in chemistry, biology and physics, Kasha's achievements range from fundamental contributions to the understanding of electronic spectra of organic molecules, to breeding previously unknown blue dyes, to redesign of the classical guitar.

William Rhodes, a colleague of Kasha's at Florida State University, described him as "a man whose curiosity continually leads him into many other scientific and nonscientific areas."

He has a rare gift for quickly absorbing and remembering minute details, as well as for being able to pursue a subject to its origins and to perceive its essential elements.

"Ask him to give a lecture to any audience," says Rhodes, "and he can come forth with an inspiring, popular lecture on topics ranging from Mendelian genetics to the history and design of a stringed musical instrument."

Rodamer, who currently resides in Woodstock, N.Y., will perform prior to the lecture on a guitar model of Kasha's Design. He has given recitals and performed in concert for 16 years and taught music for seven.

This will be the eighth lecture in the series dedicated to William J. Probst, professor of physics and one of the pioneers in the development of the University. It is a focal point in homecoming week for chemistry alumni.

The public is being invited to the lecture-concert and to a reception at 3 p.m. The following day, Tuesday, Professor Kasha will present a technical seminar on the topic: "Proton Transfer Spectroscopy of Hydroxymonomers" at 3:30 p.m. in Room 2224 of the Science Building. For further information on either even, interested persons may contact Professor Thomas D. Bouman, department of chemistry, Box 65, SIUE, Edwardsville, Ill., 62026, or call 1-692-2042.

George Sykes was re-elected president of the Board of Commissioners of the Granite City Park District at a reorganizational meeting Wednesday night and the newly-elected board members were given the oath of office by Frank Rea, board secretary.

Others elected to board of office for the 1983-84 year are: John Jeff Worthen, vice president, John Mink, treasurer, and Randall Rea, board secretary. Rea administered the oath of office to Worthen and Barry Lounsbury, both re-elected commissioners, and to Nancy Sanders the newly-elected board member, as the first order of business.

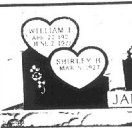

David Nolan informed the board members of final details for the baseball opening day ceremony, set for 1 p.m. Saturday, May 7, on diamond one. Trophies will be presented to the winners in the Pitch, Hit and Run contest to be conducted that day. Also, the hitting of the first ball will be by local officials.

Special invitations have been sent to the mayor, fire chief, police chief, township supervisors, and other dignitaries to attend the opening event of the summer program. Nolan explained that the pastor, Sacred Heart Catholic Church will offer prayer prior to the activities for the day.

Concession stands will be stocked and open to accommodate the 43 teams, parents and team managers expected to attend the initial baseball observance, Nolan added.

THIRST QUENCHER. Because of the boil order issued by the Illinois-American Water Company last week, the Granite City School District brought in distilled water and boiled water for use Friday by the elementary schools. Mrs. Connie Steffen, a fourth grade teacher at Emerson Elementary School, had a different solution. Mrs. Steffen, an East Alton resident, brought in Kool-Aid she made with East Alton water for the students. The students drank the Kool-Aid before they drank the water.

Local high schools receive accreditation

Granite City High School South, Madison High School and Venice High School have received accreditation through the 1982-83 school year by the North Central Association, following approval of their annual reports at the association's annual meeting.

Accreditation is for one year and must be renewed annually. Dr. John S. Kemp, NCA state director at the University of Illinois, congratulated the three schools. "The accreditation should be a matter of pride and satisfaction to the school and the community, for it provides assurance that the school meets those minimal, yet rigorous, preconditions for effective education established by the association. Through this voluntary membership in the NCA, the school and the people in the district have committed themselves to the pursuit of quality in education."

The NCA, founded in 1895, is the largest regional accrediting agency in the country. It is a voluntary organization of more than 5,000 schools and 900 colleges and universities in 19 states, plus the Department of Defense Dependent Schools throughout the world.

In Illinois, there are 619 accredited schools. James Dumont is the principal at South, Daniel S. Kostenicki is the principal at Madison High School and John C. Rush is the principal at Venice.

BURGLARY AT GC HARDWARE STORE

A door was forced open on an outside door and an interior door was kicked in to gain access to the store. The burglars were unable to open a secured area inside the safe, it was reported.

BICYCLIST HURT NEAR PARKING LOT

Phyllis M. Utnege, 53, of 1220 Alton Ave., Madison, sustained an injury in bicycling mishap and was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center last week.

Mr. Utnege was riding the bicycle north in the 1800 block alley between Edison Avenue and State Street when her machine and a van, operated by James W. Goodman, 46, of 2611 Cayuga St., which was leaving the Granite City Trust Bank parking lot, collided.

STATE ARTS COUNCIL FUNDS IN JEOPARDY

Gov. James R. Thompson warned Monday that without the funds that would be generated by his four-year tax plan, the Illinois Arts Council will be eliminated in 1984, one of several programs that would be cut under next year's spending plan if no new revenues are found.

The governor, in a letter to supporters of the arts in Illinois, said a "substantial decline in state revenues from both the income tax and sales tax" forced him to cut the Arts Council from the 1984 budget. "A decision I found difficult to make and which I do not wish to implement."

ENJOYING THE DAY. Jeff Bolter of Granite City takes advantage of warm, breezy weather under the shade of the Snowdrift trees in Granite City's Civic Park. Tuesday's high temperature of 83 degrees sent many downtown workers out to the park to enjoy the weather and the trees. The warm weather has provided relief from the wet weather the area had in early April.

APPEAL TO DELAY ROADSIDE MOWING

By holding off roadside mowing during the next few months, rural landowners can make a contribution toward building up Illinois' upland game population, according to Larry David, biologist in charge of roadside seeding for the Illinois Department of Conservation.

He says, "The next few months are crucial for ring-necked pheasants and other ground nesting species. Every acre not mowed makes a difference. Good nesting habitat is constantly diminishing throughout the state, and this makes the unmowed roadside all that more important. I recommend that mowing be delayed until August, which will provide adequate time for small animals and birds to build nests and raise their young."

CARPOT THEFT

Spoked wheelcovers valued at $500 and four tires worth $400 were stripped from a 1982 Buick, parked in a carport at the home of Howard Johannigmeier, 2715 Center St., last week. The vehicle was left sitting on concrete blocks, the owner said.

MRS. PAT KIERPAUL, 2324 Orville Ave., was gone. It was very, very spooky," Blackwell related.

"We got out of the car and it was very dark and we could hardly see," Blackwell added.

The storm passed and they got safely to his mother's home. It took about an hour for everyone to calm down and they then took the baby to the emergency room for a checkup. All was well.

Two days later, Blackwell says, "We are still getting little pieces of glass out of our hair. It is going to cost about $700 for new windows in my car and then it is going to need a new coat of paint. Rocks and things thrown against it chipped the paint all over."

However, the Blackwells survived their ordeal. "I am very happy. I think the Lord was with us," he concluded.

ROBERTA JUDD, 3222 Nameoki, was trying to calm her. I thought we were gone. It was very, very spooky," Blackwell related.

200 escape unhurt from Tri-Mor

Mrs. Larry Gibson, wife of the manager of Brunswick Tri-Mor Bowl, 3701 Nameoki Road, said about 200 people were inside the bowling facility when the tornado struck.

"We've learned that everyone remained pretty calm and it's a miracle that no one was hurt, not even one of the 'pin-chasers' (an employee who works in back of the automatic pin setters)," she said.

"With all those people in there with no power...no lights and a gas leak, it was a miracle there were no injuries. We'd just gone home and my husband was talking on the phone with someone at the bowling alley when the tornado struck and the phone went dead. We tried to get out there, but they (authorities) wouldn't let us through," she said.

(Tri-Mor Bowl is adjacent to Crossroads Plaza Shopping Center which sustained heavy damage).

Mrs. Gibson understands the initial estimate of damage to the bowling facility is $2 million. "Repairs to the roof alone will be about $500,000," she added.

"They are trying to take out all the equipment today (Wednesday) and they are still working in the dark by flashlight without any power," she said.

Most of the tornado victims have relatives to stay with but others will have their first month's rent, food and clothing provided by the disaster organization.

Residents suffering the greatest losses were residents of the Edwardsville Estates mobile home park. Miss O'Guin found seven mobile homes there completely destroyed. "We talked to some of the families. We will be giving assistance to them," she said.

In Granite City most of the damage appeared to be confined to roofs and windows. "Most of the homes were intact," she said.

Warmack held on 3 charges

Charles Gerald "Jerry" Warmack, 37, of 412 Madison Ave., Madison, is in police custody today after incidents at two Granite City taverns Wednesday.

It was alleged that at 8 p.m., Warmack and a man fought at the Long Branch Tavern. Neither was charged there.

At 9:45 p.m., Warmack is accused of yelling threats and obscenities at patrons and Frank Serrano, owner of Serrano's bar, 1417 Twentieth Street.

It also is contended that the arrested man shoved persons, broke glass and other articles, and flourished a large knife at a customer.

Warmack was charged with disorderly conduct, criminal damage to property and resisting arrest. Officers said they took a knife from him and are holding it as evidence.

CHARGE COUPLE
Beverly Jean Castle, 30, and Larry J. Troupe, 30, both of St. Louis, were arrested at 19th and State Streets last week and charged with disorderly conduct following an incident at a local store. Both were released after posting $52 cash bonds.

Chouteau posts budgets of $210,805

By DONNA KIMBRO
of the Press-Record

Tentative town budgets totaling $210,805 were compiled by the Chouteau Town Board of Trustees Monday night and now are posted for public inspection at the township hall, 697 N. Thorngate Drive, A public hearing is tentatively set for the first week in June.

The projected total reflects an increase of $15,653 for the 1983-84 fiscal year, as compared to the 1982-83 amount of $195,152. Projected expenditures of $109,105 in the General Town Fund account show an increase of $9,975, as compared to last year's total of $99,130, and in the General Assistance Fund, the tentative figure is $55,825, an increase of $14,550 from last year. The federal revenue sharing budget of $46,175 is $8,872 less than the $55,047 budgeted in that account for the 1982-83 appropriation.

The decrease in the revenue sharing budget this year is primarily because the township expects its final payment by Sept. 1 of this year.

A lengthy discussion dealt with requests for funds from various governmental bodies, with the trustees agreeing to postpone final decisions until the next meeting and then to present its findings and suggestions at the public hearing.

Township officials also approved a budget in the amount of $12,520 submitted by Michael Johnson, tax collector for the township, and granted Johnson permission to use First National Bank in Wood River as a depository for the tax monies.

Township Supervisor Walter "Dick" Sparks announced a rabies clinic will be held at the Chouteau Township highway garage on Thursday, May 26, for the benefit of township residents. Rabies injections will cost $7 per animal and also is a package of four different injections available at a cost of $14, Sparks added.

In other business, the trustees gave approval for the purchase of a four-drawer fire safe filing cabinet for use in the township office. Bids now are being received from various office supply companies, Sparks explained.

A total of $1,304 interest payments for the IMRF road and bridge fund, building and equipment fund, and town fund has been received as well as the final 1981 tax payment of $3,424 for the town fund and $6,099 in the road and bridge fund.

Township Highway Commissioner Wilfred "Bud" Elzner was instructed to begin the annual mosquito spraying program this week in all township areas. With the heavy rains and floodwaters, it is believed the spraying of chemicals and granules, manufactured especially to kill the spring and summer insects, will reduce the number of mosquitoes in the township.

Last year, a total of $7,647, which includes the chemicals, labor, and other expenses with equipment, was used for the spraying program, Sparks told the trustees.

A article concerning the decision of the Illinois Supreme Court in conjunction with the Illinois counties' lawsuit over interest on tax money counties collected for taxing bodies, was read by Sparks.

Each year, the counties normally retain interest they earn on tax money collected for taxing bodies in the county and then deposited in interest-bearing accounts until distribution. A taxing body in DuPage County filed suit against the county over the practice and the suit has been appealed to the state Supreme Court, according to the notice.

It is projected that Madison County could lose $500,000 if the ruling goes against the counties, Sparks noted.

While the county holds and invests the tax monies instead of immediately disbursing it to the taxing bodies as collected, the townships, school districts and other groups that depend on the money are forced to secure loans at a higher rate of interest until payment is received.

An alternative solution would be to turn the maintenance of county buildings to a Public Building Commission, which would, in turn, be able to levy a tax for the maintenance and construction of county buildings.

The tax could bring in more than $1 million revenue, but would require a tax of about 10-cents per $100 assessed valuation, the notice explained.

Supervisor Sparks informed the trustees he was notified that the township could pick up 1,700 pounds of butter this week for distribution to township residents.

"The problem is we need to be notified at least 10 days prior to pickup, so we can alert the residents of the day of distribution, since we have no way of refrigerating the butter. I have sent a letter requesting a better program for both butter and cheese. With the summer months approaching, we do not want the products to spoil," he said.

YEAR OF PROBATION FOR PONTON DAMAGE

Associate Judge Edward Ferguson during April ordered a year of probation for Herbert Wyman, Alto, a charge of felony damage to Ponton Beach property was filed March 7, the date when the damage occurred was not given. A guilty plea was submitted March 18.

TRUCK BURGLARY

A toolbox and assorted tools valued at $800, a 23-channel CB radio worth $150 and a CB antenna costing $40, were stolen from the pickup truck of Walter Gorline, 2500 Edison Ave., last week. A vent window was broken to get inside the vehicle.

Mother's day

the children were so young that they had to be repeatedly reminded of when Mother's Day occurred. Teachers, however, always remind the little ones.

Bigger children, conversely, must fend for themselves when it comes to remembering Mother's Day. Several times in the last few weeks, the question has been raised: "When is Mother's Day?" The answer generally is: "Soon."

Thankfully, Moms leave gentle reminders that their big day is near. "Mother's Day is Sunday. You are coming over, aren't you?"

Older children generally rush to card shops and flower stores in search of appropriate memorabilia to commemorate Mother's Day.

After all, there are only so many years that children can trace the growth of their hands through gifts. While store-bought cards and flowers are certainly wonderful, they lack a certain inventiveness common among younger children.

But moms don't mind how the expression of gratitude arrives. For those who lack funds to provide wonderfully indulgent gifts for Mother's Day, a kiss and a day of rest for Mom will do just as well as a mink or a trip to the Bahamas. Provided the day of rest also includes respite from washing the dinner dishes.

Most Moms are born with a lack of self-indulgent impulses and seem to thrive on doing things for their families. Even the smallest gesture is taken to heart and seen as a monumental gift.

While most people surely are grateful each day for their mothers, Sunday is the time to show gratitude in no uncertain terms.

So, get out the crayons and the construction paper. Resurrect the plaster of Paris, Mother's Day is near. It's time to show love and appreciation to, as Anna Jarvis said, "the best mother that ever lived — your mother."

2 PUT ON PROBATION IN MARCH BURGLARY

One year of probation has been ordered for Jackie Clouse, 17, and for Terry Copeland, 18, both of 2301 Nameoki Road.

Circuit Judge P. J. O'Neill accepted guilty pleas March 25 on a burglary occurring March 17. Location of the crime was not specified.

Fire damages tractor-trailer

Authorities believe that an arsonist was responsible for a fire during the weekend which damaged a tractor-trailer truck, parked in the Granite City Car Wash lot at 563 Namewick Road.

Called to the scene upon reports of explosions being heard, officers found the 42-foot aluminum box trailer on fire and summoned firefighters, who extinguished a blaze.

According to police reports, a fire department commander said the blaze started on the outside of the trailer and firemen were forced to break the seal to extinguish the flames, which had spread to the interior.

All indications were that the fire was deliberately set, the department commander said.

The trailer was damaged around its tandem wheels, which had burned through and exploded. The right rear tandem wheels and tires were charred and the undercarriage of the trailer bed also is badly charred and had burned through in spots, reports said.

Above the damaged wheels on the left side of the trailer, the aluminum body had been pulled away, it was noted.

The tractor-trailer is owned by Supreme Express of St. Louis. The vehicle contained a load of canned soda and had been parked at that location by Marion Gilley, 3420 Colgate Drive.

Persons residing in the area told police that a small explosion was heard, followed by three or four louder explosions. No estimate of damage was available.

Workshop on group problems

The Student Activities Office of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will sponsor a workshop on "Group Problem Identification and Solving," Friday, May 6.

The workshop is scheduled from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. in the Mississippi Room of the University Center.

Richard McKinney, professor and chairman of the SIUE department of management, will lead the workshop and detail identification of group problems, problem resolution, management of group activities and group conflicts.

The workshop is designed for student organizations and their advisers. However, all students, faculty and staff are welcome.

The workshop is free, and reservations or forms are available in the Student Activities Office.

For more information, interested persons may contact the Student Activities Office at (618) 692-2686.

ALLEGED CAR DAMAGE
Ruby J. Brown, 28, of 2023 McCasland Ave., Madison, was charged with property damage last week after the front of her car collided with the left side of the auto of Clyde Murphy Jr., Staunton, at 19th Street and Cleveland Blvd. She was released on $102 bail.

FIRST ORAL HISTORY WORKSHOP SATURDAY

The first of four free Oral History Workshops, designed to teach interviewing techniques to persons interested in keeping family and community records, was held Saturday at the Edwardsville Fire Department.

Identical workshops also will be held the following three Saturdays at the same time. On Saturday, May 7, the workshop is scheduled at the Highland Fire Department, 1122 Broadway, and on May 14 at the East Alton Fire Department. The final workshop will be May 21 at the Granite City Fire Department, main station.

The workshops are sponsored under a grant funded by the Madison County Firemen's Association, the Illinois Humanities Council and Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Purpose of the workshops is to encourage community participation in gathering information for a book to be written under the grant.

"Serving Together: Firefighting and Rescue in Madison County." But workshop participants are under no obligation to work on the grant project.

Those who attend the workshops will learn how to interview people in order to obtain oral history records. Participants will be taught how to prepare for interviews and outline interview questions. They will learn how to make use of materials such as photographs and newspaper clippings in interviews, how to use a tape recorder, how to get the person being interviewed to respond and how to prepare transcripts. If possible, participants should bring tape recorders to the workshop sessions, although some will be available for use there.

Instructor for the workshops will be Professor Jules Zanger, a specialist in American Studies in the department of English language and literature at SIUE.

Additional information can be obtained from the project directors of the grant, Capt. Dennis Henson of the Edwardsville Fire Department and Professor Betty Richardson, department of English, SIUE.

NEIGHBORS' FEUD LEADS TO ARREST

While her children were barbecuing in the backyard last week, Mary Ann Jey, 2629 Center St., alleged a neighbor came into the yard, grabbed her son, 15, and threw him to the ground. The youth had red marks on the neck and face, reports said.

Arrested in the case and charged with battery was Alfred W. Bolt, 23, of 2625 Center St., who alleged the youth made a sarcastic remark to him and said the families had been feuding for several months. Bolt was released after posting a $52 cash bond.

DUI CHARGE FILED

Granite City police charged Richard W. Scherzer, 25, of Hazelton, Pa., with driving while under the influence of alcohol on Madison Avenue.

MADISON FIRE. Madison Fire Chief Mike Mack walks through the rubble at 312 State St.

The site of a blaze that broke out in a vacant building, which formerly housed the old Dollar Store. The cause of the blaze is being investigated, but apparently was not due to the storm, Mack said. Three pumps and a rescue truck were called from Madison and the Granite City Fire Department assisted in fighting the blaze. Mack said that firefighters left the scene at 1:15 a.m. There were no injuries from the fire which broke out on the ground floor of the structure.

Westinghouse recalls attic ventilator motors

William L. Kempiners, director of the Illinois Department of Public Health, has announced that Westinghouse Electric Corporation and Broan Manufacturing Company are making a voluntary recall of approximately 16,000 electric motors supplied by Westinghouse for Broan Model 346 and Nautilus Model N346 attic ventilators.

The motors for these attic ventilators were mislabeled and may overheat and cause fires. The ventilators were sold nationwide through electric supply houses to builders and consumers, and directly to consumers through home centers.

ENTERS INNOCENT PLEA TO THEFT

In a court appearance last week, Janice Thomas, 23, of Ferguson, Mo., pleaded innocent to a charge of retail theft and requested a jury trial. She was arrested at Tratlter's, 18 Nameeki Village Shopping Center. Bond was set at $1,000 and a mittimus was issued. She was transferred to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville.

ARREST AFTER CRASH

Mary K. Rainey, 24, of 4038 Kathy Drive was charged with driving with a suspended license and passing a stoplight last week at 20th Street and Madison Avenue, where the front of her west-bound auto collided with the right side of the northbound vehicle of Larry Lane, 3240 Wayne Ave.

Humane shelter nearing completion

By NANCY WEIL
of the Press-Record

The Association for the Protection of Animals will open its shelter on Old Alton Road within the next six months, after nearly four years of waiting for the structure to be completed.

The only thing that stands in the way of the building's opening is $3,000 needed to purchase stainless steel cages and install plumbing, electricity and a propane gas tank.

Members of the APA are busily working to raise the final funds. Thus far, about $25,000 has been donated to complete the shelter, according to Carol Willoughby, co-president of the APA.

Mrs. Willoughby said the shelter will have the capacity to house about 50 animals, including cats, dogs and "other little creatures."

Gerbils, birds and other small animals can also be housed at the shelter, she said.

The APA, a state licensed corporation, works closely with the Treehouse Wildlife Center in rural Alton and with the Humane Society, Linda Irwin, APA member and editor of the group's newsletter, said.

"We're not trying to compete with the city pound," she added. Instead, the APA acts as an adoption center, she said.

"We can only take so many (animals)," Mrs. Willoughby said.

With the opening of the shelter, Mrs. Irwin predicted "we'll see a lot of growth within the next year."

There currently are 16 members in the APA, all of whom serve the organization as volunteers.

The group meets at 7 p.m. the third Tuesday of each month at the VFW hall, 2044 Washington Ave. The public is invited to attend and new members are being sought, Mrs. Irwin said.

Volunteers answer calls that come into the shelter number about abused, neglected and abandoned animals. Investigators can be sent out to see the animals in question.

Last year, the APA sought prosecution against a Granite City woman for neglecting a puppy that was found by investigators to be malnourished.

"It was a stride forward because people were told they have to be responsible for the condition of their animals. They are held more accountable," Mrs. Irwin said.

Animal neglect and abuse cases are rarely prosecuted and the case of "Spotty" was the first time the APA successfully sought prosecution.

The young woman who owned "Spotty" pleaded guilty.

The APA is looking for a suitable owner for "Spotty," who has been living with a group member.

Even though the shelter is not yet open, the APA will investigate cruelty cases.

"Our aim is to serve the public of the Quad-City area," Mrs. Irwin said.

Donations to the group are tax deductible and may be sent to the APA, Post Office Box 131, Granite City, Ill., 62024. Those who know of cruelty cases may call the APA at 877-4594 and leave a message. An investigator will check out the call, Mrs. Willoughby said.

ADDRESS IS WRONG

Martin E. Glaspie, who was arrested last week, does not live at 4707 Kirkpatrick Homes, the address given by police records, a resident at that address said this week.

Jeremiah 32:27

"Behold, I am the Lord, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me?"

The Lord God puts forth a question to every generation, "Is there anything too hard for God?" We readily say absolutely not! God can do anything. Yet, there are many things God cannot do because we do not let Him. When we give our lives to God and do our best to live every day for Him, He wants to be involved in every thing we do.

How often we hear someone say, "I don't pray because the problem is too small to bother God with." Please try to understand this: if it bothers you, then it bothers God! Take your needs to God in prayer. Then all your cares on Him, because He cares for you. When you pray every day, you receive every day.

Once you learn that God wants to share your needs and your joys, that He is involved in all your life, then you can quickly and truthfully say, "There is nothing too hard for God."

Say so. Today.

Storm victims urged to pick repairmen carefully

Victims of the recent storms are warned by the Better Business Bureau to "beware" of unscrupulous individuals who follow in the wake of any disaster, such as the weekend tornado in Granite City.

People claiming to be contractors, government representatives, inspectors or insurance adjusters should be required to produce property identification.

"If you are in doubt, contact the Better Business Bureau or the company by which the individual claims to be employed," James Schmitt, BBB president, said.

"Take whatever action necessary to protect your property from further damage as required by your insurance company. The Better Business Bureau urges storm victims to exercise caution before dealing with unknown contractors going door-to-door in damaged areas. Work done by such workmen the BBB warns, usually is shoddy and expensive. When problems occur, the consumer has no way to locate the person who did the work in order to voice a complaint, much less have the problem remedied.

"If victims have homeowners insurance, be sure to check the extent of your coverage, as well as the possibility of federal aid."

"Before doing business with a transient workman, ask his name, address and telephone number. Check his truck, which should have a name painted on the side, and his license plate to determine if it is current and in what state it was issued," Schmitt added.

High waters also have generated numerous inquiries on basement waterproofing companies. Consumers are reminded to be price competitive. "Compare the cost of the work to be done, the quality of the materials to be used and the cost of financing the work. Be sure to read and understand the contract carefully, and do not sign a completion form until you are totally satisfied with the job," he said.

Storm victims are being urged to contact the Better Business Bureau, at 1-800-241-3100 before doing business with any firm.

I PLEDGE ALLEGIANCE. Students from Nameoki Elementary School in Granite City celebrated Pledge of Allegiance Day Friday by holding a ceremony in front of the school. All of the students sang "The Star Spangled Banner" and recited the Pledge of Allegiance. The fourth grade classes sang the pledge during the ceremony. Schools throughout the nation celebrated the day with similar ceremonies. (Press-Record Photo by Roger Kramer)

Election law reform commission

Governor James R. Thompson has created an election reform commission to study ways Illinois election laws and procedures can be improved or changed.

"Last November's election proved how important it is to have election laws that are clear, firm and enforceable," the governor said. "This commission will review election laws and make recommendations on any changes that need to be made in state statutes."

The commission, which will have 15 members, will meet on a monthly basis, will submit a report on its findings and recommendations to the General Assembly and the governor in December.

Religious programs and events at area churches

New minister at Glenview Chapel

The Rev. James Callahan will be installed as the new pastor of Glenview Chapel Assembly of God Church, Sunday, May 8, at 11 a.m.

Officiating at the installation service will be the Rev. Norman Surratt, executive secretary-treasurer of the Illinois District Council of the Assemblies of God. He also will deliver the sermon at the morning worship hour.

Rev. Callahan is a graduate of North Central Bible Institute in Minneapolis, Minn., and has pastored churches in Illinois and Wisconsin. He also has served as an evangelist at various churches and religious meetings in central United States.

The new minister and his wife, Anna Mae, are the parents of two children, Janina who is 4 years old and 6-year old Jimmy. They are residing at 2204 Wilson Ave.

Following the installation ceremony a potluck dinner will be held in the church Fellowship Hall at noon Sunday and an open house reception will take place at the parsonage from 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday, according to the announcement.

Evening Guild hears guests

Mrs. Dalphine Kinder, a member of Calvary Baptist Church, was the guest speaker at a meeting, Monday night, of the Evening Guild of St. John United Methodist Church.

She presented a devotional lesson entitled, "Letting God Put the Squeeze On You" with scriptures taken from the book of James, to 20 members who gathered in the church fellowship hall for the session.

Mrs. Kinder also told of her teaching classes for adults, some who cannot read, and related some of her experiences teaching a Czechoslovakian family. The weekly classes are designed for adults only and some of the people eventually organize a church of their own, she explained.

Accompanying Mrs. Kinder were her husband, Song and his wife, Mrs. Song and young daughter Chl Jun. Rev. Song, who is pastor of a church in Fairview Heights, gave the closing prayer.

Also included on the program was Miss Mi Suk Cho, a student at Granite City High School South, who sang a song in Korean accompanied at the piano by Helen Robertson.

Mrs. Robertson led the Least Coin Devotion and Mrs. Pat Schulte was accorded honors as birthday honoree of the month.

President Linda Sturman conducted the business segment at which time the officers submitted their monthly reports. Plans were finalized for a mother and daughter banquet to be held in the fellowship hall on May 9 at 6:30 p.m. Tickets costing $4.75 for adults and $2.75 for children 8 and under may be purchased from Wilma Willard, chairman of the ticket committee.

Mrs. Jane Kennerly announced the May Fellowship Day, sponsored by the Quad-City Church Women United will be held on Friday, May 6, at Farrar Memorial Center, 900 W. Washington, West Madison, to begin at 9:30 a.m.

The June 6 meeting will be the time for members to travel to Hiltz Home in Alhambra to entertain the residents with the Kitchen Band, the president noted. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Schulte and Karen Frazier, after the meeting.

Christian Women's meeting set May 10

The Madison County Christian Women's Club will feature "Table Settings" at its "Table Talk Luncheon," Tuesday, May 10, at noon.

The two-hour luncheon program will be held at Randy's Restaurant in Troy. Table settings both elegant and practical will be presented by Peggy Williamson of Peggie's Helvetia Haus of Highland and Recollections of Chesterfield Mall.

Special music for the occasion will be presented by Carolyn Peter, soprano soloist from Collinsville, who performed with Masterworks Choral in Belleville.

Mrs. Myrtle Barron will be the guest speaker. Mrs. Barron has traveled across the country to speak at local groups and in conferences.

Originally from Nova Scotia (having been born there) Mrs. Barron came to the area from Maine, where she and her husband had been active in youth work. She is now personnel director at the National Office in Kansas City, Mo., as well as National Director of the Stonecroft ministries.

The Madison County Christian Women's Club is part of an international organization which has over 2,000 groups across the North American Continent. There is no formal membership or dues, and all women are invited to attend. The cost of the luncheon program is $3.85, payable at the door.

A free nursery for preschoolers will be provided at the Christian Fellowship Center (Church), located on the frontage road north of the Union 76 Truck Stop. Reservations for the luncheon are essential and can be made by calling Bonnie 288-7172, Joann 667-2995, or Betty 654-6961 by noon, Friday, May 6.

Aerial photographs show the tornado's fury

Port, Crossroads sustain damage

Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler and Press-Record Editor Gary Schneider were invited to view the tornado damage from a helicopter Monday afternoon and saw extensive damage from the canal levee across the city.

The helicopter was hired by Pantara's Pizza as a public service for the mayor.

UPPER RIGHT: Missing roofs at the front of Tri-Mor Bowl, including the offices of Realty World Star, Inc., and Walter B. Heidke, chiropractor, are but part of the damage to the bowling alley building. About 200 persons were bowling when a portion of the roof was torn off by the tornado.

Operation snowball combats drug abuse

Starburst Quartet receives award

OPERATION SNOWBALL in the Granite City Township Hall during the weekend attracted a large group of youths for positive identity enforcement and some straight-forward information on drugs. The day-long Snowball also offered guidance to assist them in avoiding the pitfalls of drugs and alcohol abuse and to help them influence others to "get high on life." In the photo at the left Granite City High School South Counselor Cheryl Evans, right, ties a piece of yarn entitled a "warm fuzzy" to the necklace of Sue Jones of Belleville. Presentation of the warm fuzzies between the participants was always followed by a warm hug. Above, Granite City Policeman Richard Schardon gives a presentation on types of drugs available on the streets and their effects. Piasa Health Care presented the Snowball, in conjunction with several local groups.

Starburst, a local Sweet Adelines, Inc. barbershop harmony quartet, placed second this weekend in competition with 21 quartets at the Midwest Gateway Region Five Competition Convention.

The lead singer, Chryl Wessel, is from Collinsville, as is Patty Walker, who sings bass. Billie Vance, tenor, and Cathy Shaefer, baritone, are from Granite City. All are members of the Collinsville Chapter, Sweet Adelines, Inc.

The Sunshine Company, also from the Collinsville Chapter, were last year's first place winners, and provided entertainment following the competition. About 1800 people attended this competition.

State for lower federal deficit

Governor James R. Thompson, vice chairman of the National Governors' Association, has joined with Chairman Scott Matheson, Utah governor, in asking members of the U.S. Senate to make reduction of the federal budget deficit a major goal in their deliberations.

The budget resolution for 1984, sent to the floor by the Senate Budget Committee, is under consideration by the full Senate.

Thompson and Matheson warned that governors feel strongly "that spiraling federal deficits threaten to undermine the fragile beginnings of economic recovery."

"The seriousness with which we view these deficits was the single most important element in binding us bipartisanship together on broad budget guidelines in areas in which we have traditionally not ventured, such as defense and entitlement spending."

The governors said members of Congress must "reach a substantive consensus to slash deficits now and in the future" if people are going to be able to go back to work through a sustained economic recovery.

"Without low, stable, long-term interest rates, consumers will not spend, industry cannot invest in new plants and equipment, and state and local governments cannot build the roads and sewers they need to attract new business."

"Until the financial markets are presented with a credible plan to control present and future deficit spending, attractive interest rates will remain illusive," they said.

Thompson, who will become NGA chairman in August, and Matheson offered the senators U.S. governors' assistance in devising a plan to restore long-term job growth.

BURGLARY AT REEB'S DAIRY

Between 125 and 150 cartons of cigarettes, a quantity of bacon and packaged meats, hair care products, razor blades and cigarette lighters were stolen in a burglary at Reeb's Dairy, 1337 Johnson Rd.

Entry was gained by breaking a glass pane in a rear door. Merchandise was being inventoried determine the extent of the missing items.

PLEADS INNOCENT

Timothy M. Johnson, 26, of 2110 Nevada Ave., arrested at home last week on a warrant charging public indecency, pleaded innocent in a court appearance at Granite City police headquarters. Bond was set at $1,000 cash and a mittimus was issued. He was transferred to Madison County Jail at Edwardsville.

Dinner-dance to fete GC educator

Vasil Eftimoff, who will be retiring from the Granite City School District at the end of the current school year, will be honored at a dinner and dance Sunday, May 15, at Buckley's Garden Restaurant in Fairview Heights.

Eftimoff, a Granite City native, has been employed in the local schools for 29 years; the last 14 years as director of Pupil Personnel Services.

The event will start with a social hour and cash bar at 3 p.m. May 15, followed with dinner at 4 p.m. Dancing to the music of the All Occasions band will be from 5 to 9 p.m.

The cost for dinner and dancing is $10 per person and $3 each for the dance only, those planning the event advised.

Anyone interested in attending or obtaining additional information may contact Mrs. Betty Doyle at Logan School, 2400 W. 25th St.

Summer craft show sign up

Persons wishing to participate in the "Summer Craft Show," scheduled to take place Sunday, July 3, at the Wilson Park ice rink pavilion, are invited to contact the Wilson Park office at 877-3059 for information and registration.

The public show affords exposure to area craftsmen and enables them to display and sell handmade items. It will be staged during the Granite City Park District's annual Fourth of July celebration.

Since the demand is so great and space is limited for the Christmas Crafts Festival held each November, the summer show was initiated to accommodate those unable to obtain space for the later date, a spokesman advised.

Cost of tables for the summer crafts event is $7.50 for residents of the Granite City Park District and $12.50 for non-residents.

Student-employer event

By VALERIE EVENDEN
of the Press-Record

Joan Evers, assistant vice president of Florists' Mutual Insurance Company of Edwardsville, will be guest speaker at the ninth annual "Student-Employer Appreciation Banquet" at 6:30 p.m. today.

The dinner is given each spring under the auspices of the Granite City School District's Off-Campus Education Program and the Off-Campus Advisory Council.

Its primary purpose is to show appreciation to the various employers throughout the community and vicinity who hire local high school students under the school-work program and to recognize the efforts of the student participants.

Donald R. Shaffner, Off-Campus coordinator, said, "The banquet will be held in the auditorium of the Granite City Township Center, 2060 Delmar Ave. More than 400 students and employers attended the event last spring."

At the present time over 300 students from both Granite City high schools participate in the Off-Campus Education Program with 120 employers taking part.

An active civic leader and businesswoman, the guest speaker is a native of Edwardsville and attended the primary and secondary schools there. Her husband, Kenneth L. Evers Sr., is mayor of Edwardsville. Mrs. Evers is an alumnus of Monticello College in Godfrey and the University of Southern California at Los Angeles, where she majored in telecommunications with a minor in business administration.

She was raised in the family businesses of commercial printing and retailing and, after college, served in the areas of retail management, buying and administration.

GC staff to tell of drug education

An all-day training session will be held May 12 on drug and alcohol prevention education.

A pilot program, under the direction of Maryville Principal Jack Mulach, has provided a source of potential expertise that could be of tremendous value to classroom teachers and elementary school administrators in other schools throughout the county and state. Madison County Regional Supt. Harold E. Briggs has informed the Granite City School Board.

"Largely due to the pioneer nature of this project, Madison County is in the statewide forefront of drug and alcohol prevention education at the elementary level."

"Requests for assistance with in-service teacher training are increasing and this demand is expected to rise during the 1983-84 school year."

"For this reason, the Illinois State Board of Education has provided funds for my office to further train pilot program teachers so that they may, in turn, act as resource personnel in the county and state."

"These funds are adequate to cover costs related to such training, including release-time substitute pay for Maryville teachers."

"I request participation of the Maryville teachers and principal in a day-long training session to be conducted on Thursday, May 12, at this office. Participation by teachers is strictly voluntary."

"I appreciate the assistance of the Maryville School professional staff thus far and am seeking your approval of this special training."

"Developing a base of teacher-administrator expertise will greatly enhance the availability of resource personnel," Briggs concluded. Approval was given by the board.

for Foehrkalb's Gifts, a family concern.

Joining the staff of Florists' Mutual Insurance in February, 1977, Mrs. Evers served in various positions with the firm, including supervisor and manager of the records department prior to her appointment as personnel administrator in 1978. She remained in that job until promoted to the post of assistant vice president-human resources.

The guest speaker is active in many community programs and has served for the past 26 years as a church organist, currently at St. John's Methodist Church.

She serves as a member of the Edwardsville School District's Vocational Advisory Council and the City of Edwardsville Personnel Commission; a director of the Edwardsville YMCA and consultant to Project Business, a division of Junior Achievement Inc.

The speaker also is chairman of the Lincoln Academy of Illinois and serves as past Bethel guardian of the International Order of Job's Daughters.

Mrs. Evers is a former member of the Advisory Board to the Illinois Department of Personnel and the Edwardsville Downtown Planning Commission. She also previously served as a director of the Edwardsville Chamber of Commerce.

She and her husband are the parents of Kenneth L. Evers Jr., unit manager for WACS Restaurant in St. Charles, Ill., and Scott Alan Evers, an Edwardsville police officer.

The Granite City School District's Off-Campus and Extended Classroom program enables the junior and senior year high school student to gain valuable experiences in various job opportunities while continuing his or her high school career. Some student participants enter the program to learn a variety of job skills in preparation for entering a specific field after graduation.

Others taking part discover that the stability and responsibility which go with a job also help them finish their formal education, according to Shaffner.

Recent statistics show 40 percent of the local high school population continues on to college, but from that 40 percent at least 60 percent never finish, Shaffner said.

JOAN EVERS

The Off-Campus and Extended Classroom programs, therefore, provides another alternative to a student in the remaining 60 percent who doesn't want to go to college in the first place, the coordinator noted.

Students involved must stay in school while working and, in the vast majority of cases, this mandatory rule works and the young people stay in school, Shaffner added.

To augment the professional personnel working with the students, an Off-Campus Advisory Council was established, consisting of employers, former student participants and others interested in the program.

Evaluation of the overall program, both from the student and employer aspect, is among the council's tasks, he explained.

Chairman of the appreciation banquet is John Szewia.

Sea shell program at Thorngate meet

A sea shell motif provided the decorations and program for the April meeting of Thorngate Garden Club held in the home of Mrs. Betty King.

The tablecloth was embellished with sea shells and an arrangement of the shells served as the centerpiece. Food molded in the shape of shells was served in abalone shells by the hostess.

During the business meeting, Jane White, vice-president, presided in the absence of the President Jean Bethel. The president fell and broke her leg, it was announced.

Plans were finalized for the group to attend a luncheon and food demonstration at the Magic Pan Restaurant in Northwest Plaza this month. Others present were Enid Bolen, Lillian Delps, Wanda Kincaid, June Lux, June Markham, Beula Miller, Helen Polley, Pat Polley, Clara Schilling and Joyce Bettorf.

State OES officers visit Granite 650

Mrs. Venita E. Patton, worthy grand matron of the Order of the Eastern Star of Illinois, made an official visit to Granite Chapter 650's meeting during the weekend. She was presented a white lace fan with attached flowers in shades of pink and silver ribbon by Associate Matron Betty Kelso. A special ceremony with miniature fans and donations tucked inside them for the charities of the order was performed by star point officers Sharon Cory, Adah, Mary French, Ruth; Mary Petrosian, Esther; Carol Downing, Martha; and Isabel Diekmann, Electa.

Associate Patron Neal Kelso made a special humorous gift of a miniature battery operated fan to the worthy grand patron. David Moss named a Merit Scholar

About two thousand winners of college-sponsored four-year Merit Scholarships were named yesterday by National Merit Scholarship Corporation in the last of three nationwide announcements in 1982. Among recipients are David G. Moss, 10 Miami Court, a student at Granite City High School South.

Winners of these awards must enroll for undergraduate study at the college or university financing the Merit Scholarship, worth between one thousand and eight thousand dollars over four years. About one hundred ninety of the nation's higher education institutions have made these Merit Scholarships possible and have committed almost nine million dollars for this year's winners.

More than one million students entered the current Merit Program and 15,000 were named semifinalists last fall. About 13,500 of them then advanced to finalist, standing by meeting additional requirements and the academic standards of this competition. Only finalists competed for 5,300 Merit Scholarships being awarded this spring that have a total value of more than $18,000,000.

Moss, a student in chemical engineering, will enter Washington University, St. Louis.

STOLEN BURGULARY
Potato chip packages, a display rack and an unknown quantity of candy bars were taken in a burglary at the Rainbow Ice Cream store, 2041 Johnson Road, last week.

VOCATIONAL TECHNICAL DAY, at Granite City High School North provided 600 junior and senior students the opportunity to meet with over 20 representatives of junior colleges and vocational and technical institutions from the St. Louis area. Pictured above are two students involved in a discussion with a U.S. Army recruiter during the day long program.

Vocational Day attracts 600

Approximately 600 junior and senior students at Granite City High School North had the opportunity to meet with over 20 representatives from the junior colleges and vocational and technical institutions from the St. Louis area, last week, at the Vocational Technical Day held at the high school.

Some of the fields included in the day long project included secretarial, computer technology, electronics, medical technicians and assistants, diesel mechanics, aircraft mechanics and maintenance, interior decorations, nursing, court reporting, engineering technology, waste water technology, and the branches of the military services.

The Vocational Foods Department of the high school, under the direction of Mildred Collins, prepared and arranged a variety of cakes and pastries for the representatives.

"This was an excellent chance for our students to explore horizons and receive information about training in areas that they had not considered before," Gilbert Walmsley, principal, commented.

Use colleges to train and retrain workers

By STATE SENATOR SAM VADALABENE

There is not an official in Illinois who ran for public office last year who did not campaign on the economic revitalization of the State of Illinois.

I know I did. Recently, the 33 members of the Illinois Senate Democratic Caucus combined to introduce a comprehensive 284-page package on economic development.

The package, entitled "Prairie State 2000," aims at the very heart of the problem of growing unemployment and stagnating climates for business and industry in Illinois.

Virtually every aspect of our state's economy is addressed in Prairie State 2000. And before we fall prey to any accusation that our package is a political balloon, let me say that staff work on the project began as early as last September.

In other words, we have, as Senate Democrats, taken it upon ourselves to provide the necessary leadership to help pull this state out of a very sick economy.

Instead of waiting for a national economic recovery plan, one which may never peek its nose into Illinois, we must do everything within our own state powers to stimulate renewed economic growth.

At the heart of the current economic slump in Illinois is our educational system in Illinois. In addressing that problem, Prairie State 2000 suggests we use our excellent community college system to help train and retrain our workforce.

In fact, the community college system, according to the grand scheme of Prairie State, would have the community colleges serve business and industry much in the same way that the extension service serves the farmer.

The colleges would be available for a virtual encyclopedia of information for business and industry looking to locate in a community in Illinois.

In addition, the community colleges would provide technical assistance and the hardware necessary for business and industry to retrain a workforce lacking high-tech skills for the future.

The other major elements of our proposal include business and tourism development, incentives, local government assistance and the development of our agricultural and natural resources.

For example, our state has a wealth of natural and man-made beauty which should become a cornerstone for new dollars for Illinois from other states. The City of Chicago is the biggest convention attraction in the nation, but it can and it will be bigger.

Our proposal includes the opening of several State of Illinois offices in cities such as Los Angeles, New York, Atlanta and Dallas.

These offices would serve as high-profile contact facilities to bring not only tourists, but business and industry to the Land of Lincoln.

Meanwhile, we attempt in Prairie State 2000 to broaden our agricultural and natural resource base through marketing programs for the U.S. and abroad. We propose the creation of a multi-state compact among the major grain-producing states in the Midwest.

Such a compact would conduct aggressive marketing programs and assure a long-term return for Illinois farm products.

When we speak of natural resources, what could be more attractive to large industrial concerns than a clean-burning lump of Illinois coal?

Prairie State calls on various existing Illinois agencies to aggressively market our coal after we seek out new and improved methods of removing the sulfur content from the product.

As I mentioned earlier in this column, Prairie State 2000 consists of 38 separate pieces of legislation. Each measure is a product of an incredible amount of thought and research by professionals, not politicians.

As such, 33 independent-thinking Democratic senators from every corner of the state have aligned in support of what we believe is an answer to a very painful problem for all our citizens.

A television reporter remarked after a Prairie State briefing session that the package appeared to deal with the future. He wondered aloud about the present.

I respond:

Short of a giveaway program, a program which the general public has told us it doesn't want, no government can overnight solve the economic mess we're in today.

Chiefly, we seek to put people back to work in permanent, meaningful jobs. Those jobs, we believe, must consist of employment for many years, not just a few weeks or a few months.

Perhaps, had someone proposed a program like Prairie State ten years ago, we would not have double-digit unemployment in Illinois. Perhaps our work force would be equal to the challenge of the coming high-technology era.

And perhaps, 10 years from now, a new generation of Illinoisans will thank us for initiating such a program for permanent economic stability.

(Senator Sam M. Vadalabene is a Democrat from Edwardsville. He is chairman of the Senate Committee on Executive Appointments.)

HURT ON BELT LINE

Two persons were injured in a two-vehicle accident late last week on Belt Line Road at Keebler in Collinsville. Taken to Oliver Anderson Hospital by Collinsville Fire Department ambulance were Ida Nishwitz, 77, of Collinsville, the driver of one car, and Edna Miller, 60, of Granite City, a passenger in a car driven by Albert Miller, 67, of Granite City.

A witness said the Nishwitz vehicle, westbound on Belt Line Road, turned left in front of the other car, which was eastbound on Belt Line Road. The accident occurred at 5:30 p.m. Both Mrs. Nishwitz and Miller were treated and released.

Baker is among District Nine's rehired staff

Ask almost anyone who knows soccer in the Metro-East area, or in St. Louis for that matter, who Gene Baker is, and nine times out of 10 they'll tell you he's Granite City South's virtuoso soccer coach.

Right. Baker's coached six Granite City South soccer teams to state championships. He's been named regional high school soccer coach, state high school coach, and most recently he was named national high school soccer coach. He's Mr. High School Soccer everywhere.

He's a soccer celebrity. Despite that celebrity status, Baker, like many of his colleagues, received a pink slip last month, stating he would be relieved of his teaching duties at the end of the current school year.

If you ask many of those same soccer buffs what else Baker does at South, you'd probably get responses which would range from: "Isn't he in physical education?" to "I simple I don't know."

That's just it, many people don't know. While Baker was conspicuously leading his teams to victory on the soccer fields in the early evening, he was unobtrusively teaching Thoreau and Faulkner in the classroom during the day. But no one (except

Sports on the Run

By Al Gerstenecker

those people close to him) seems to know that. Ironically, the thing Baker is most qualified in, English, is the thing he's least known for.

Gene Baker is an English teacher. Although he has always been involved in soccer in one way or another, he was hired by the school district 10 years ago as an English teacher. And Tuesday night, it was for that very thing that the school board has asked him to return next year. In all, the board rehired 27 persons Tuesday night—24 high school teachers, two junior high teachers and one grade school teacher. Of those 24 persons, four currently hold coaching positions and another is affiliated with athletics.

Two of those four in addition to Baker are Gary Morgan and Gus Lignoul. Morgan and Lignoul were hired back to fill the anticipated need in the vocational and industrial arts programs.

Morgan coached Granite City South's girls' basketball team this year, while Lignoul coaches the Granite City North girls' softball team.

The other two, Greg Patton, assistant athletic director at South and Bryan Wilkinson, athletic director at North, will teach health classes in the fall. As I understand the situation, teachers were rehired after students had registered for the coming year. In effect, the board rehired those teachers who teach the special interests of the students.

For example, Lignoul has been with the district just three years, but he teaches electronics in the industrial-vocational department. Evidently, there is enough interest in electronics to warrant his rehiring.

Another such instance is in Morgan's case. Morgan is a drafting teacher. The district needed another drafting teacher this fall.

In Baker's case, English is mandatory. In all, there were six teachers rehired. Baker was the last one to be rehired.

Despite the fact that Baker has been rehired, there still looms the question as to who will be soccer coach.

WHAT? You say. Let's look at things objectively. Sure, Baker looks to be a shoe in now that he's been asked to return. But, it's my understanding that the extra-curricular positions such as pom pom coach, yearbook advisor and athletic coaches are appointed by the school board.

Okay, okay. Now that he's assured a position, you say, who would deny him that position. Hopefully no one.

But after the kind of surprise-filled year, we've had already soccer fans and myself won't rest easy until the appointment has been made.

Baker himself, admittedly, has taken a low profile on the whole situation. Can you blame him? It's hard to be happy when the person next to you whom you've taught with for 10 years has not been asked to come back.

Hopefully everything will work out for the best for everyone.

Area thoroughbred experts pick Derby winners

By AL BARNES
for the Press-Record

The Kentucky Derby will be run this Saturday afternoon at the hallowed race course of American horse racing, the legendary and storied Churchill Downs on the outskirts of Louisville.

It is the only horse race in United States sports which captures the American public's attention at least on Derby Day. It is, perhaps, the sole horse race which the average Joe Public will bet a few dollars on who would never, never think of risking a few bob on the bangtails otherwise.

The Press-Record sports department, in our continuing efforts to be of service to the sports-loving public of the Quad-City area, has attempted to gather some expert advice on the field of approximately 20, three-year-old thoroughbreds, who will line up at the starters' gate at about 4 p.m. Saturday at Churchill Downs for the 10th annual "Run for the Roses." The Derby started in 1875 with Aristides the winner.

When we started out to locate someone to help us, we really didn't realize that there would be more than one local horseman, and woman, who can qualify for advising the general public on who to pick in the Derby.

We found six locally who are really "up" on racing and willing to go "on record" with their three picks for the Derby—first, second and third.

Here they are: Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Seebold, with Bud making the "picks"; David Dean Embury, Leo Wolf, Merwyn Sher, Conrad Copelan, whose son-in-law, Paul Holloway, is one of the most promising young Illinois horse trainers, and Charlie Hester.

Embry, who owns and operates 12 McDonald Restaurants in Madison County, has his office headquarters on the outskirts of Granite City on Illinois Route 111 just south of I-62, has gone the heaviest in the field of breeding, raising and racing of thoroughbreds. His 57-acre farm on the edge of Greenville, Ill., is truly beautiful.

The farm, named "Secret Acres Embury," is so beautiful that it looks like a giant hand picked it from the heart of Kentucky's storied horse country, plunked it down in southwestern Illinois.

Embry's three "picks" in the Derby are, along with the jockey, as follows: Marfa, first, with Jockey Jay Velasquez up; Chumming, second, with E. Maple in the saddle; and third, Paris Prince, with P. Lipham the jockey.

Of the hundreds of horses Embury has raced, his pride and joy has to be a fine filly, Pretty Angela, who he bought for $5,000 and sold just last year for $165,000. Embury's trainer at Greenville, a former jockey, Rodney Boatwright, differs slightly from his boss: he picks Marfa first, Slew Gold (son of Derby winner, Seattle Slew) second, and Paris Prince, third. Kentucky governor Julian M. Carroll named Embury a Kentucky Colonel in 1979. Only two fillies have ever won this Derby—the last in 1980.

Merwyn O. Sher, an owner and operator of Cohen's Food Market and the youngest of the horse raising experts, picked Play Fellow, Marfa and Copelan. "You know Play Fellow beat out Marfa just the other day at Keeneland, Ky., in a thrilling finish," Sher points out. "She's a horse owned by a man I know, Dr. Carl Lauer of St. Louis. We feel that he has a real good chance to win it all," predicts Sher.

Leo Wolf, a local contractor and builder, got into racing when his firm won the contract to rebuild Fairmount Park which had been burned out in 1974. Says young Sher: "Leo really has gotten into racing. And he's a credit to the sport."

Wolf was named a Kentucky Colonel by Governor Wendell H. Ford. His three Derby choices are: Slew Gold, winner of the Wood Memorial; Play Fellow, and Marfa. In an aside, Wolf said: "Bud and Martha Seebold has a real winner in Meefay—that's some horse," he says.

Paul Calloway, Connie's Bauer's son-in-law and trainer of his horses, would only pick two horses to finish one-or-two in the Derby.

His pair of Derby choices are Marfa and Bounding Basque. Young Calloway, a native of Belleville and a graduate of West, started his horse training career as a youngster when he hung around the barns at Cahokia. "I simply fell in love with the sport," he explains.

Charlie Hester, who races both flat horses and trotters, was somewhat reluctant to stick his neck out picking the Derby finishers. He was, however, unavailable for an interview by the Press-Record. A spokesman at Hester's popular restaurant,

Wrong On Wet Track

Bill Russell, treasurer of the Granite City Elks Lodge 1063, has corrected my last column on my first Kentucky Derby, in which I erred, apparently, when I said that it "always rains on

Derby Day.

Not so, says Russell. "It hasn't rained, to my direct knowledge, on Derby Day since at least 1951."

I stand corrected, Bill. Thanks.

Warriors serve up Eagles 7-2 loss

BETHALTO — Coming off a full weekend of tennis, the Granite City South tennis team easily defeated Civic Memorial Monday afternoon 7-2. The victory boosts the Warriors record to 8-3 this season.

The Eagles proved to be easy picking for South as the Warriors won four of the six singles matches and all four doubles matches. While South's second singles player, Matt Sheridan, sat out after winning on a forfeit, South's John Menendez defeated CM's Scott Howes 6-2, 6-3.

In third singles, the Eagles picked up one of their two victories as Blake Gregory edged South's Charlie Miles in the first set 7-6, and then had an easier time with the Warrior winning 6-3 in the second set.

Don Kaltmayer, South's fourth singles player, dropped a two-set decision to CM's Ken Pruitt 6-2, 6-3 as the Eagles even the team score at two apiece.

Jerry Laken put the Warriors back on the winning track as he put together a two-set victory over Greg Johnson. Laken won 6-3, 6-3.

In the final singles match of the afternoon, South's Dave Earne dropped the first set to Jeff Kallal 2-6, but posted victories in the final two sets to eventually win 2-6, 6-2, 7-6.

In doubles action, South's Menendez and Sheridan rolled over Bethalto's Howes and Chris Todd in straight sets, winning 6-2, 6-0.

Miles and Kaltmayer, whom each lost singles matches, avenged their singles losses by defeating Pruitt and Johnson 6-4, 4-6, 7-6.

In third doubles Laken and Tom Hitt, doubles partners in last weekend's Belleville East Invitational, defeated Gregory and Andy Talkington 6-3, 6-3.

The Warriors' match Tuesday against Belleville East was cancelled. The Warriors will, however, be in action this afternoon as they host Wood River. Action begins at 4 p.m. at the tennis courts on Grand Ave., behind the South High School.

Lovejoy breezes by Red Devils 14-4

By STEVE WHITWORTH
of the Press-Record

VENICE — Junior hurler Ronald Bates lanned 11 Red Devils, leading the Lovejoy (Brooklyn) Wildcats to a 14-4 victory over Venice Wednesday.

The Wildcat rightlander allowed just four hits, walked one and hit two batters with pitches. He aided his own cause by scoring three runs.

Senior leftfielder Adrian McDowell provided most of the offensive firepower for Lovejoy. The cleanup batter slammed three hits and drove in four runs. Teammate Erwin Atkins, a senior shortstop, added three RBIs with a triple and a single.

Lovejoy scored one run in the opening frame off Venice starter Mike King. The Red Devils tied the score when leadoff man Phillip White singled and scored in the bottom of the first.

The Wildcats cracked things open in the top of the second, scoring six runs on three hits. In its half of that inning, Lovejoy sent 11 batters to the plate and chased King during the inning. Atkins drove in two runs with a triple and McDowell drove in three with a bases-loaded double.

The Wildcats added two runs in the third inning and two more runs in the fifth off Venice reliever John Bull to run the score to 11-1. Freshman rightfielder DeAngelo Bailey lofted a long fly ball over the right fielder's head in the fifth for a home run.

Venice kept the game going in the bottom of the fifth when they scored three runs. Left fielder Albert Jones tripled to drive in one run and scored on a double by White. White eventually scored on a wild pitch to make the score 11-4.

Lovejoy came right back, however, in the top of the sixth with three runs. Atkins and third baseman Mantia Johnson had RBI singles in the inning.

Bates then retired the Venice side in order in the bottom of the inning to seal the victory for Lovejoy.

"Bates had his best game of the year," said Lovejoy's assistant coach, Henry Jackson. "He had confidence in his pitches and he threw the ball hard all day."

Jackson also praised McDowell. "He's hitting the ball well," Jackson said. "He's just started to come around in the last three games."

Coach Chuck Mosby of Venice was still optimistic about his team's effort. Noting that his team was playing its first baseball season, he said, "We're still improving. It's just a matter of time. All we really lack is experience and that comes with time."

He cited experience as being the key to Bates' success. "Bates knows the game because he has Khoury League experience," Mosby said. "He had good control."

Steelers edge Crusaders; vie for GEC title

By ROGER KRAMER
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — If Granite City North's batters could hit Tony Duenas, Belleville Althoff's answer to Nolan Ryan, the Steelers could hit off any pitcher.

Duenas, who averages 13.5 strikeouts per game and two strikeouts per inning, appeared to be the stiffest test for the Steelers so far. However, Duenas was only able to fan four Steelers in six innings, and North upset the Crusaders 3-1.

Althoff was previously undefeated in the Gateway East Conference, but sank to 4-1 in the GEC and 8-3 overall.

Although Duenas only gave up four hits, North knew how to put the hits together to its best advantage. North went hitless in the first three innings, but came alive in the fourth and fifth innings.

Sieve Trittichuh was responsible for getting the Steelers going in both innings. In the fourth inning, he led off with a single. Terry Rujaewitz followed by reaching second on an error by shortstop Kevin McFarland.

Rod Hessler hit the ball to McFarland, who threw to first to try to get Hessler out. However, McFarland missed the mark and both runners scored. Hessler was credited with a RBI since Trittichuh would have scored anyway.

With two outs in the fifth, Trittichuh hit a double and scored on Rujaewitz's single.

Althoff's only run came in the first. Todd Grant led off with a single and scored on Duenas' single.

Although North pitcher Dan Whitsell gave up seven hits, once again, North's defense got him out every other jam, except the first inning, without a run.

For instance in the fourth inning, Ron Fehrer hit a double and tried to score on Troy Cason's single. However, left fielder Benny Nolan nailed a perfect throw to catcher Daren DePew to throw Fehrer out.

In the seventh, Cason walked and tried to go to third on a single. Right fielder Terry Rujaewitz threw to shortstop Brian Levin, who threw to Trittichuh to get Cason at third.

In addition, Whitsell struck out five batters, one more than Duenas, and walked just one batter.

"Dan really pitched a super game," North Coach Bob Stegmeyer said. "Duenas pitched a super game too. We just got the timely hits and took advantage of their errors."

"We had to win this game to stay in the conference, and the boys really put things together. I was skeptical about our pitching in the beginning of the year, but our pitchers have really come through," Stegmeyer said.

While Stegmeyer was savoring the win, Althoff Coach George Martz got away from North as quickly as he could.

"We didn't get the hits when we needed them, and they got the hits at the right time. We haven't been picking up each other as we should," Martz said.

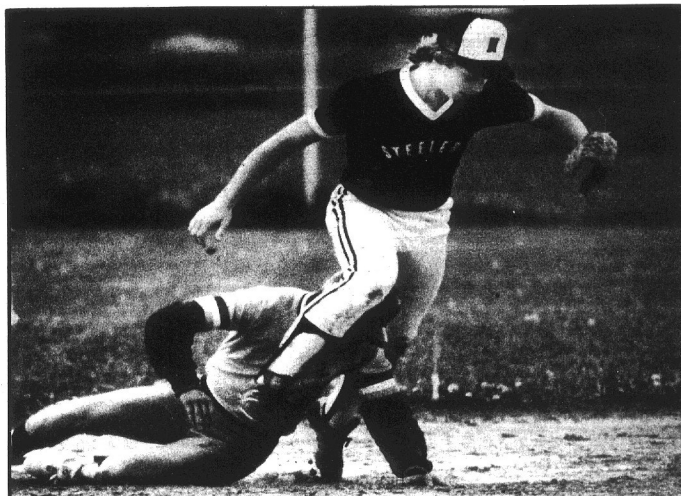

Despite the loss to North, the fate of the GEC race is still in Althoff's hands. If Althoff can beat Edwardsville, it will clinch at least a tie for the conference. If Althoff loses, Edwardsville will win the championship by itself.

The only way North can tie for the title is if Althoff beats Edwardsville and if North can beat Althoff May 17.

McGuire Cup championship is tonight

It's been nearly a week in coming, but the championship game in the Illinois McGuire Cup (USYSF) is just around the corner.

Granite City's surviving entry in the annual Under 19 tournament, MHC Mendoza, came from behind last Saturday at Sangamon State University to defeat the Kickers (white) of Chicago 3-2. The victory pitted the Granite City squad against the Alton Optimists who, too, were semi-final victors. Saturday, the Optimists were 3-0 victors over the Kickers (red) for the Illinois championship.

The championship game was scheduled for Sunday at noon, but, due to torrential rains, the game was postponed. Both teams played for approximately four minutes last Sunday at Sangamon State University before it was postponed.

Now, after some ado, the game is scheduled for today at 6 p.m. at Gordon Moore Park in Alton. First the game was scheduled for Tuesday, then Wednesday and finally, it seems, both teams have agreed that tonight would be the best night.

In Saturday's contests, MHC Mendoza was trailing 2-0 at halftime but scored three goals in the second half to secure the victory.

Second half goals for MHC Mendoza were scored by Fritz Brewer, Tony Segobiano on a penalty kick and Nathan Crane.

Alton's scores were by powerhouse John Stone and Tim Nazello. Stone picked up the first two and Nazello scored the third.

Tri-City resumes season with NASCAR program

By JOE SENTER
for the Press-Record

Racing at Granite City's Tri-City Speedway was cancelled due to rain for the third time during the young four-week season Friday night. Friday's Winston NASCAR program and regular features, late model stockers, the mighty midgits, the mini modifieds and the street stocks, will attempt it again this Friday night. The speedway has scheduled six races during the next 14 days.

Last Friday night's rescheduled first showing of the Skool Tobacco Company's mighty midgit series once again fell victim to Mother Nature. It has been rescheduled for the third time for Saturday, May 14.

Skool Tobacco has agreed to offer a large winner's purse, so it's hoped to draw some of the nation's finest drivers.

Among the drivers expected to be on hand are Rich Vogler of Indianapolis, Ind., Mel Kenyon, Kenny Schrader, Gene Gennetion, Arnie Knepper, Bill Laycock and others.

On Wednesday, May 11, the outlaw sprint cars will take to Tri-City's half-mile dirt track. The winged sprint cars will be running at nearly 100 mph as they broadside their way around the track.

Gates open each night at 6 p.m. with racing starting at 8 p.m. For more information, persons may call the speedway at 797-6579.

South drops twinbill to rival Steelers; now 6-1

By ROGER KRAMER
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — Many of the coaches at Granite City North High School are stressing victories over Granite City South because this season will be the last chance for their teams to beat the Warriors.

A notable exception is North baseball coach Bob Stegmeyer. "We don't play up the North-South rivalry here, we just want to win the games one at a time."

The Steelers have been playing their games one at a time for the last nine games, including a double-header sweep over the Warriors Tuesday. North won the first game 4-0 and the second game 9-6 to increase its winning streak to nine games and its record to 11-3.

North, 4-2 in the Gateway East Conference, has a chance to gain a tie for the league championship. However, Belleville Althoff will have to beat Edwardsville again, and North has to beat Althoff May 17 in order to give North a piece of the title. North cannot win the GEC outright.

"The first game was a big one because of the conference, and the second game was important because our reserves got in there and won," Stegmeyer said.

North needed a little prodding from Stegmeyer to win the first game, but the Steelers got the job done. Jim Burton got a five-hit shutout to increase his record to 4-0.

Prior to the third inning, North had scored only one run when Hessler hit a single and scored with the aid of two runs in the second inning. The Steelers were missing the fly ball they usually got to, and Stegmeyer thought it was time for an awakening.

He simply told the Steelers they were only leading 1-0 and that they had to play better. The short talk did wonders for North.

"We weren't playing good ball in the first inning and playing like the Steelers have been. After we had our talk, we played like the Steelers again. We made some excellent fielding plays, and we were hitting the ball hard."

In the fourth inning, Brian Levin hit a double and scored on Kevin Patterson's single. North followed that up in the fifth inning with two more runs. Designated Hitter Keith Coakley hit a single and scored on catcher Daren DePew's triple. Steve Trittichuh added a double to score DePew for North's other run.

Although the defense wasn't at 100 percent for the whole game, Burton made up for North's mental mistakes. Burton, who walked seven last week against South, walked only three batters this time around. In addition, Burton struck out five batters.

However, the defense had its moments too. South left the bases loaded in the first inning without scoring a run. In the fourth inning, Levin made a diving catch on a line drive by Mike Sikora to end the inning. North ended the game with a double play.

Warrior pitcher Tom Newton held the Steelers to seven hits and walked no one. However, North was able to get timely hits and take advantage of South's mistakes.

In the second game, the reserves got a chance to shine for the Steelers. DePew, who started the game at catcher, Trittichuh, who took over in the third inning, and Levin, who relieved for his brother Greg in the seventh inning, were the only regulars in the game. None of the three batted.

In fact, the last time Trittichuh played behind the plate was two years ago during a sophomore baseball game.

South's line-up consisted mainly of starters, and it looked for a while the Warriors would end North's winning streak. In the first inning, Tom Stegmeyer hit a triple and scored on Vince Mitchell's double. Mitchell then scored on a ground ball by Sikora.

South made the lead 5-1 when Jim Small was hit by a pitch and North pitcher Billy Henke walked Tom.

Adamitis, Stegmeyer and Mitchell to score runs. Two runs scored on an error by North third baseman Jim Moad, who misjudged an fly ball in the infield.

North's lone first inning run came when David Gebhardt walked and scored on a sacrifice fly by Coakley. However, North's comeback started to gain momentum in the fourth inning.

Jerry Booker reached on an error, Greg Nemeth walked, and Moad reached on a walk. Eric Goff drove in a run with a sacrifice fly to center fielder.

Spencer leads Scots to victory

MONMOUTH — The Monmouth High School softball team split a double-header with Marycrest College of Davenport, Iowa, last Thursday. Monmouth won the first game 6-3 but came away on the short end of a 3-2 score in game two.

Sophomore Karen Spencer, Granite City, gave up three runs on three hits in game one to collect her third victory for the Lady Scots. Spencer, who went the distance, had the support of the Scots' bats. Junior catcher Karen Friedrich, Pekin, went three-for-three from the plate and had one RBI. Friedrich, who had the only home run for the day, was called out for not touching home plate as she rounded the bases after her line drive had cleared the left-field fence. Freshman Pam Riehlholm, McHenry, served as the designated hitter in game one and collected two RBIs.

SIUE take pair from SIUC; meets Greenville

By AL BARNES
for the Press-Record

EDWARDSVILLE — The number 13 proved to be unlucky for the Salukis of Southern Illinois University of Carbondale here Tuesday afternoon as their little and much younger brothers of SIUE Edwardsville finally beat them in baseball as the two college diamond powers split a rain-splattered twinball, 5-3 and 4-3.

The 14-game inter-school baseball series started in 1974 with the Cougars of Coach Roy E. Lee stunning the high-flying Salukis of Coach Richard (Itchy) Jones, 3-2 and 6-3 on a sun-drenched field at Cougar Field on Sunday afternoon before perhaps the biggest crowd ever to see a college game locally.

But after that pair of victories, the Cougars then went 13 games without beating the Salukis, until Tuesday's final game. The opening game was a cliff-hanger with the visitors scoring four runs in the second frame on a triple by their designated hitter, Rich Koch, who hit in the gap in center to score three. Funny thing, though, the Salukis were very lucky that the Cougars didn't put them away in their (SIUE's) first time at bat.

The Cougars' sure-fielding and fleet rightfielder, Tim Gamble, led off the first frame with a triple. Dave Jones, leftfielder, was "safe" on an infielder's error. George Vogel, the Cougars' slugging center-fielder, was out on a check-swing play to first. Tom Greco took a called third strike and blasting Dan Alaria was walked filling the bases. Scott Wilkerson, SIUE's catcher, killed off the Cougars' hopes for a big inning by watching a third strike call. Both Greco and Wilkerson were the victims of the Salukies ace southpaw, Rich Ellis, who raised his record to 3-2, although he had to have late inning help from Rich Koch.

Vogel's triple in the third cut SIUE's deficit to two (4-2) and Dan Ritzheimer's sacrifice fly in the sixth scoring Wilkerson made it 5-3.

Hitting star for the visitors was Bobby Jones, who was a first round draft choice last year of the Cincinnati Reds, but who turned down $100,000 bonus to remain in school at Carbondale.

In the second game, Jones gave the Salukies a three-run lead in the opening frame when homered with two mates on base. And, he was two-for-two in the first game. Every time he came to bat, Coach Gary (Bo) Collins and his SIUE board of strategy gathered on the mound to advise the Cougar hurler.

The meeting of the minds, finally paid off in the top of the seventh in the second game. The Cougars, who had fought back to tie it up 3-3 in the fifth, finally moved ahead 4-3 in the bottom of the sixth, and, all without a hit. Saluki reliever, Jay Bellissimo, who had given up the tying run, walked the first three Cougars to face him in the SIUE sixth and SIUE scored what proved to be the winning run as Terry Cochran hit into a double play.

So, when tall and towering Ted Smith came in to relieve SIUE's lefty starter, Jim Scheiball, in the top of the seventh, guess who came to bat with the bases full of Salukis.

Yup, you guessed it. None other than Bobby Jones. With the count one and two, Smith came in with a beautiful and sharp-breaking curve and caught slugger Jones watching for the final out of the game. After Jones' first frame homer, Collins had decided to give him nothing out curve balls from then on. It worked.

And, the Cougars' first victory over the Salukies in 14 games.

SIUE is now 25-11, while Carbondale slipped to 19-12, with both schools having about eight games remaining.

Fund raisers get royal reward

The People's Organization to Benefit the Children of Venice crowned its first Venice King and Queen as a new addition to the group's annual Fashion Fair.

Selected king and queen were Showella King and Ulisses Williams, both chosen for being top fund-raisers for the organization. The funds will be used to sponsor activities for area children.

The winners will be flown to Orlando, Fla., June 10 for a chartered visit to Disney World. Each also will receive $100.

The king and queen will represent the People's Organization in the annual Shriner's Parade next month.

"We hope next year to send another new queen and king back to Disney World with all expenses paid," the Rev. John Henry Williams said.

Willie Walker, executive director of the Madison County Urban League, crowned the king and queen. The presentation of special awards was made by Williams.

Helen Bishop, chairman of the contest, was master of ceremonies for the event. Alderman Victor Valentine Sr., co-founder of the People's Organization, made the opening remarks.

Fashion Show Chairman Anna Claggett introduced that portion of the program and Metro Pierson served as fashion commentator.

Modeling fashions were Carolyn Smith, Sharon Brandon, Sheila Robnett, Betty and Yolanda Boyd, Nicole Singer, Dorece Anderson, Harlan Wilson, Tina Claggett, Angela McCarthy and Barbara Madison.

Also modeling were Rhonda Howard, Lois Shelby, Vanetta Waters, Regina Banks, Mary Francis Franklin, Anna Claggett, Sheila Spearman, Helen Bishop, Dale Crawford, Don Garrett and Kerwin Stanley.

RETURN MINI-BIKE

Rick Wallace, 2440 Terminal Ave., reported last week that a 12-year-old boy asked to buy his mini-bike and, upon learning it was stolen April 22, offered to sell it back to the victim if he could locate the machine. The mini-bike, which had been recovered by police earlier, was returned to its owner.

BREAK-IN AT NAMEOKI SCHOOL

Burglars broke a window and entered Nameoki School last week. The office was ransacked and a soft drink machine in the teachers' lounge was forced open.

The intruders removed a door from its hinges to gain access to a storage room, reports said. A coin box was opened and about $2 was taken. An inventory was being compiled.

$106 IS STOLEN

John Martin of Fernwood, Mo., a patient at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, reported late last week that $106 had been stolen from his wallet, which had been left in a drawer next to his bed. The patient had declined to place the wallet in the security of a safe, hospital authorities said.

First GC National Bank reports good year, despite the economy

At the annual meeting of shareholders of First Granite City National Bank, Inc., at the offices of First Granite City National Bank, 96,187 of the 132,000 shares of stock outstanding were voted in the election of directors of the corporation. Directors elected at the meeting were Joseph G. Glik, Thomas E. Holloway, S. E. Pershall Jr., John W. Reese and Melvin C. Wilmsmeyer. Shareholders were presented with a recap of the operation of the bank holding company and First Granite City National Bank, the wholly-owned subsidiary, for the year 1982. President Melvin C. Wilmsmeyer noted that the assets of the bank had increased approximately $3 million at year end 1982 over 1981. "This is due to the economic conditions experienced during the year," Wilmsmeyer noted.

"Net income for 1982 reached $1,001,000, an increase of 40.5 percent over 1981. The decline in interest rates during 1982 assisted greatly in improving earnings by enabling the bank to regain a more favorable net interest margin," Wilmsmeyer explained.

Thomas E. Holloway, executive vice president of the bank, reviewed asset, earnings growth, and market share data. Through the use of charts, Holloway traced the bank's earnings and deposit growth over the past decade.

Shareholders were informed of the continuing progress in obtaining approval from the Federal Reserve Bank to carry forth with a formal offer to purchase all of the shares of Colonial Bank of Granite City. Shareholders were told that correspondence on the purchase of the bank would be mailed immediately.

Following the meeting of First Granite City National Bank, Inc., the annual meeting of First Granite City National Bank was conducted to name directors of the bank for the coming year. Re-elected as directors were Dr. Maria Bauer, Earl C. Buenger, Wilbert Engle, Joseph G. Glik, S. E. Pershall Jr., Carl A. Ranft, John W. Reese, Wilmsmeyer and Leonard E. Yelton. H. R. Fischer and Paul H. Lichtenberger were reappointed as advisory directors. In addition, three new members were added to the board, Holloway, Christ V. Geroff and Edward L. Sambuchi.

Holloway has been serving as senior vice president of the bank. He joined First Granite City National Bank in 1974 and has served the bank in numerous capacities over the past nine years and will continue to handle a portfolio of the commercial loan portfolio.

Dr. Geroff has practiced dentistry in Granite City since 1967. He is a graduate of Granite City High School and St. Louis University Dental School. Sambuchi is vice president and general manager of the Granite City Steel Division of National Steel Corp. Prior to joining Granite City Steel Division in 1982, Sambuchi served the Great Lakes Steel Division of National Steel for 23 years. He is a graduate of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute of Troy, N.Y. Sambuchi and his wife, Peggy, have six children and reside in St. Louis County, Mo.

At the organization meeting of the board of directors of First Granite City National Bank, Holloway was named executive vice president and Albert G. Hudzik was named assistant vice president. Holloway and Hudzik previously held titles of senior vice president and special projects officer, respectively.

Mike Kulier, who joined the First Bank on March 28, was introduced to all members present. Kulier was named assistant vice president and will serve as a commercial loan officer. He has spent 15 years with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation as a field examiner. He is a graduate of Illinois Wesleyan University, Bloomington, Ill., and resides with his wife and two daughters in Hillsboro. The Kuliers expect to move to Granite City in the near future.

Open house to honor Fred Noeth

Fred Noeth, retiring principal of Logan School and a Granite City teacher for the past 30 years, will be honored Sunday, May 15, at an open house at the school.

The honoree served as principal of Washington School for 23 years prior to transferring to Logan four years ago when the Washington building was closed.

Sponsored by the Logan Parent-Teacher Association, the open house will take place from 2 p.m. until 4 p.m. May 15 and is open to all family members, students and former students, parents, faculty members and other colleagues.

Winnie Pointer, PTA president, said members of the school board and other special guests also have been invited to attend the event, which was planned as a surprise until formally announced today.

Cake and punch will be served and a presentation ceremony is planned, Mrs. Pointer said.

Noeth was born in Venice on Nov. 30, 1914, and was enrolled in 1921 in the first grade at Webster School in Granite City, where he attended through the sixth grade.

He was graduated from Central School in January 1930 and from Granite City Community High School in January of 1934.

Noeth then joined his father in a coal and ice business and as his brothers, Ted, Christ and Tom, completed high school, they also joined the firm.

The retiring principal and his brothers served in the military during World War II. When the war was over, the brothers returned and continued to operate the coal business with Fred acting as manager. The Noeth business grew into one of the largest coal trucking companies in the country, with a daily movement of more than 1,000 tons into mills, factories and homes.

When natural gas became abundantly available, coal was no longer in demand and Fred and his brothers, Ted and Tom, dismantled the firm and enrolled at Shortleiff College.

The honoree graduated magna cum laude from Shortleiff in June 1953. He then taught sixth and seventh grade classes at Mitchell School for four years and during this time also earned a master of science degree from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale.

In 1957, Noeth was appointed principal at Washington School, where he remained in that position until his transfer four years ago to Logan School.

Noeth married the former Mary Carson in January 1942 and the couple has four children, Mrs. Sandra Davis, Mrs. Prima Englin, and Dan and Fred Noeth Jr. They also have seven grandchildren.

TWO WAYS TO AVOID INTOXICATION:

1. Don't drink alcohol.
2. If you drink alcohol, take no more than one drink per hour. A standard drink of 12 oz. of beer, 5 oz. of wine, or one mixed drink, contains about 1 oz. of pure alcohol, which is the amount a normal, healthy liver can process in one hour.
